THE I. O. O. F. MEETING

Mr. B. E. Buren Returned From Columbia This Morning.

B. E. Buren, representative from the Fifty-sixth district to the state meeting of Odd Fellows at Columbia, returned this morning and reports a splendid session of the order.

Mr. Buren asks the Democrat-Sentinel to deny the statement in some of the public prints, to the effect that Sedalia was interested almost wholly in one thing—the defeat of the attempt to remove the state headquarters to either Liberty or Kansas City from St. Louis.

Sedalia had business of her own to attend to, Mr. Buren says, and was not there for the purpose of antagonizing other sections of the state, as some of the press dispatches would lead the reader to believe.

Five Vagrants Were Fined.

Mike Manarex, John Doherty and George Mack, arrested last night for vagrancy, were each fined $10 and costs by Justice F. W. Clark today.

WILKINS WAS ILL

THIS WAS THE CAUSE OF HIS ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE AT WALCH'S CAFE.

WIFE WAS VISITING AT NEVADA

Was Completely Prostrated by the Shock, and Unable to Join Husband at Pryor Creek, Ok., for the Present.

M. C. Wilkins, who attempted suicide at Walch's cafe last Tuesday afternoon, as chronicled in the Democrat-Sentinel Wednesday, was written of as follows in the Nevada Post of Thursday afternoon.

Wilkins is the husband of Mrs. Wilkins, who is visiting her parents, E. C. Dauphine and wife, on West Aren street, in this city. Recently he worked for the M., K. & T. at Parsons, Kan., as an extra dispatcher. Just prior to his leaving Parsons he worked for a road in Salt Lake City.

A Post man called on Mr. Dauphine today and informed him of the attempt at suicide of his son-in-law. Mr. Dauphine had not heard of the rash attempt of Wilkins to take his life.

He stated this his daughter received a letter from her husband Wednesday, stating that he was not feeling well; that he had a hallucination that some one was going to kill him, and as he was not feeling well he would go to his home in Pryor Creek, where Mrs. Wilkins should join him later.

Mr. Dauphine further stated that Wilkins had been in poor health for some time, and that he has attended to his work with so much regularity that he had become nervous.

Mrs. Wilkins was first notified of her husband's attempt at suicide by her father. She was overcome with grief. She will not be able to travel to Pryor Creek for some days, as the shock to her nervous system is too great to withstand the trip.

Mr. Wilkins is well known in Nevada. Shortly after coming here he became acquainted with the lady who is now his wife and they were married. The news of Mr. Wilkins' act will be read with much regret by his friends here

Mr. Murphy for several years was employed as a machinist at the Missouri Pacific shops in this city, but for the past year he has worked at the same trade in Amarillo, Texas. His bride-to-be has just closed a successful term of school near Clifton City.

The couple will be married at the bride's home, and, after the wedding, they will leave for Colorado and California for a month's bridal trip. They will then return to Amarillo, Texas, to reside.

The many friends of the couple will learn of the coming event with surprise and pleasure.

Fritz Etzbach, a Missouri Pacific brakeman, while running with Conductor J. W. Griffin on train No. 64, had one foot so badly mashed while switching at Pleasant Hill at 1 o'clock this afternoon that amputation will be necessary.

He was taken to the company hospital at Kansas City. His wife will join him there tonight.

FUNERAL OF KING

FINAL SERVICES OF THE SEVENTH EDWARD TOOK PLACE TODAY.

WAS IN WINDSOR CASTLE CHAPEL

Nine Reigning Monarchs Grouped About the Altar, Upon Which Remains of England's Late Ruler Rested.

Windsor, May 20.—Today the castle gates at Windsor were opened to receive the casket containing the remains of the seventh Edward within its massive walls. The gray towers and battlements over which the union Jack was flying at half mast, never appeared more impressive. From the railway station to the chapel the gun carriage, carrying the casket, was drawn by a squad of blue jackets. Immediately behind walked King George, wearing the uniform of a general and the sash of the garter, with the German emperor at his right and the late king's brother, the duke of Connaught, on his left. The casket was placed on the Catafalque before the altar in the chapel, which was fairly buried in floral pieces.

As minute guns boomed and bells tolled, the casket was borne in on the shoulders of Grenadiers. King George, as chief mourner, stood at the head of the casket, while other members of royalty were grouped about.

Nine reigning kings were in attendance at the ceremonies.

TOMORROW'S BALL GAME

Sedalia and California High School Teams to Meet.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Liberty park the High school team of Sedalia will clash with the California High school team in a baseball game which promises to be "gingery."

As the school dismisses next week, this is the last game of this term. According to the manager, Prof. Finis Duncan, a goodly number is expected to attend, as the admirers of the national game have had very little pleasure in this way for quite a while.

Every effort will be made by Sedalia to win, especially as the California High school is second only to Jefferson City in High school athletics.

Following is the lineup of the Sedalia team: Ugdorf, catcher; Collins, pitcher; Brill, first base; Harris, second base; Humphrey, third base; Salisbury, shortstop; McCormick, right field; Schupp, center field; McNeil, lef; field.

Gave Him Hearty Welcome.

The Rev. Harold Cooper, pastor of the First Congregational church, returned this morning from a business visit at Marion, Ind., and a social visit at Ironton, Ohio, where he formerly resided and had a charge.

Rev. Cooper was met at the depot in Ironton by a legion of friends wearing white badges upon which was printed the one word, "Cooper," together with a band of music, and most royal, indeed, was the welcome extended by former parishioners.

Honor for Another Sedalian.

Dr. H. L. Barnum, who has been attending the annual meeting of the Missouri Institute of Homeopathy at Kansas City, returned home this morning. Dr. Barnum was elected first vice president of the association.

DOING GOOD WORK

WESTERN MISSOURI DISTRICT, EVANGELICAL SYNOD OF NORTH AMERICA.

ABLE PAPER READ THIS MORNING

This Evening the Cantata, "Zion," Is to Be Presented, Under the Direction of Mrs. Stoerker, Wife of the Pastor.

The afternoon session of yesterday was devoted by the Western Missouri District of the Evangelical Synod of North America to a discussion of the apportionment system which is to be instituted by the synod. The paper on the subject read by Rev. F. C. Klick, of St. Joseph, Mo., was well received and an interesting debate followed, the conference concluding to adopt the system as laid before the house.

The committee on the report of the general president, Dr. J. Pister, brought resolutions covering the work of the synod. Much interest was shown in behalf of these resolutions.

At 8 o'clock in the evening a service was held. Rev. Dr. J. Mimz, of Wellington, read the Scriptures and offered prayer, and Rev. Dr. H. M. Lissack, of Lexington, Mo., preached a very able sermon. The choir sang several beautiful songs.

At the close of the service Rev. Dr. Reiger extended to the congregation and district the good wishes of Rev. Meier, a former pastor of Immanuel's church, from whom he had received a communication.

Today's session was opened with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. C. Gabler, of Pilot Grove, Mo. A very interesting and able paper was read by Mr. George Bartholomaus, of Jefferson City, on the subject, "In what way can the men of our congregations be helpful, so that each congregation may fulfill its obligations?" Every one gave this paper his undivided attention and an interesting discussion followed.

A resolution was passed to extend the thanks of the conference to Rev. and Mrs. Paul Stoerker, to the ladies who served such splendid meals to the guests, to the choir of the church and to all those who so kindly opened their homes to the delegates, for all the kindness and enertainment received.

This evening at 8 the choir will render the cantata, "Zion," under the direction of Mrs. Paul Stoerker. This promises to be a musical treat for all. The public is invited.

TO HAVE A COMET PARTY

After the Regular Meeting of the K. and L. of S. Tonight.

After the regular meeting of Fidelity council No. 53, Knights and Ladies of Security, tonight, in the new hall in the Odd Fellows' building, the members will indulge in a comet watch party from the windows in the banquet room on the fifth floor.

A strong magnifying glass will be used, and it is safe to say they will be more successful than Louie Ritchie was when he arose and climbed the steps at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday morning and failed to see anything but the eastern sky line, which, he says, was very beautiful and worth anybody's time to get up and see from the height of the Hoffman building.

WANTED $1,000 A DAY

To Give Exhibitions With Aeroplane In Sedalia.

C. F. Ernst, president of the park board, this afternoon received a long distance telephone call from an aeroplane exhibitor, sent from Joplin, asking if he could secure an engagement in Sedalia on or about June 4 and 5.

The promoter asked a guaranty of $1,000 for each of the two days and stipulated if the gate receipts were several times that much he should get more.

He was laughed at and pushed his proposition no further.

Ran a Nail Into His Foot.

Lee Carpenter Thursday painfully injured his right foot by penetrating the member with a rusty nail. He was attended by Dr. W. J. Ferguson.

A Beautiful Plant, Truly.

Lovers of flowers who may not have had an opportunity to see a rhododendron in full bloom cannot imagine its beauty. Mr. A. D. Stanley has one blooming most grandly in his garden on West Broadway. He would be pleased to have any who desire to call and see it.

Austin Hurley With a Bank.

Austin Hurley, youngest son of Mrs. Kate Hurley, of Fifth street and Grand avenue, has accepted a position as messenger at the Sedalia National bank, with which institution his brother, Emmett Hurley, has been connected for several years as bookkeeper.

"JOHN L." COMING

ONCE CHAMPION PUGILIST IS TO SAIL FROM LONDON TOMORROW.

HE WILL REPORT THE BIG BATTLE

Has Not Given Out Any "Dope" as to Who He Thinks Will Win, but Sympathy Naturally Is With the White Pugilist.

London, May 20.—John L. Sullivan has engaged passage to New York on a vessel sailing tomorrow and will arrive in America a week later.

He has accepted an offer from an American newspaper to report the Jeffries-Johnson battle in San Francisco, and will proceed to the California city after filling a week's engagement at a New York music hall.

"Lots of stuff has been written as coming from me about this fight," said John L. Sullivan, "but it's all bosh. I am saying nothing about who will win, but I may have something to say later when I arrive on the spot.

"No one can say anything now, but I naturally hope the white man will win. If Jeffries comes back he will be deserving of more credit than any fighter that ever lived."

When asked whether he thought the fight would be a long or short one, Sullivan would not express an opinion beyond saying that he understood "Jeff" was going after his man right away.

HE IS A "SEDALIA BOY"

W. A. Durham, Assistant General Manager of the M., K. & T.

W. H. Reynolds left last night for St. Louis for a brief visit with his brother-in-law, W. A. Durham, better known in Sedalia, where he was reared, as Arthur Durham, who was yesterday promoted from assistant to the general manager to assistant general manager of the M., K. & T. system, next in authority to A. A. Allen, vice president and general manager.

The news of Mr. Durham's advancement was received most joyously by a legion of friends in Sedalia and Pettis county—friends who have with pride watched his course since he entered the railway service in a minor capacity nearly twenty years ago.

Mr. Durham's promotions have been the result of his own exertions wholly, as he had no "pull," which is too often the only reason for advancement in railway and other lines of business.

Sedalia is proud of her worthy son, for he is truly a self-made man, and the Democrat-Sentinel joins his many friends in extending congratulations on this latest recognition of his splendid ability.

THE NEGRO SCHOOL AGAIN

Member of the Locating Board Pays Sedalia Another Visit.

Dr. Ricketts, a Kansas City negro physician, who is a member of the board appointed by Governor Hadley to select a suitable location for the Industrial School for Incorrigible Negro Girls, was in the city Thursday, conferring with Edward Hurley, a real estate dealer, relative to the purchase of the tract owned by Mr. Hurley, in Northeast Sedalia, and on which the board contemplates erecting the school building.

Those who are interested in having the school located upon this particular tract of land say that it is certain to be built there, despite the protests that have been filed by representative citizens, regardless of political belief.

FOUND HIM GUILTY

BRUCE BIDSTRUP CONVICTED OF SHOOTING A NEIGHBOR IN COOPER COUNTY.

IT CAUSED QUITE A SENSATION

The Defendant Sentenced to Twelve Months' Imprisonment in Jail and to Pay a Fine of One Thousand Dollars.

One of the most important cases on the present court docket was the case of the state against Bruce Bidstrup, of the southeast part of the county, says the Boonville Advertiser. Bidstrup was charged with shooting his neighbor, Elmer Brubaker. The shooting took place one dark night several months ago, and on account of the high standing of the parties the affair created quite a sensation in the neighborhood and was much talked about all over the county at the time.

Bidstrup claimed that he caught Brubaker lurking around his place at night and chased him away and shot him, while Brubaker claims that Bidstrup was caught on his premises at night, armed with a shotgun, and that he chased him away and was shot by Bidstrup after he had run him down to ascertain who he was.

Brubaker was found by a neighbor and taken in and medical aid summoned. He was so badly injured in one leg that amputation of the limb was necessary.

A state warrant was issued for Bidstrup and he was arrested and put under bond. The two men were the only witnesses to the affair.

When the case was called Monday nearly the whole country of the vicinity in which they live was here to testify to their standing as citizens The jury was compelled to consider the evidence given by the men, which was conflicting.

The following composed the jury: Thomas Robertson, C. C. Eldridge, Henry Sauck, W. H. Ellis, Adam Rudolph, Elmer Smith, Ben Morris, Mike Minster, John Richie, Clark Thornton, J. W. Scholtzhauer, John Jones.

Able counsel was retained by both parties and the case went to the jury at noon Wednesday. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon they returned a verdict, assessing Bidstrup's punishment at one year in the county jail and a fine of $1,000.

The case will no doubt be appealed.

DR. CAMBBELL WAS THERE

Officiated at Initiatory Work by Eastern Star at Clinton.

The Eastern Star met in regular session Monday evening, says the Clinton Democrat. Many members were present, the occasion being the initiation of Miss Tod Dodson and Miss Sadie Campbell.

Dr. A. J. Campbell, worthy patron of Sedalia chapter, was asked to give the initiation work for his sister and Miss Dodson.

The members of the order felt honored by the visit of Sedalia's worthy patron, and were glad to have him assist in the work of the evening.

After the delicious two course lunch, a lengthy impromptu program of music and speeches was furnished by some of the talent of the Eastern Star.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

Human life is like a game of chess—each piece holds its place upon the chessboard—king, queen, bishop and pawn. Death comes, the game is up, and all are thrown, without distinction, pell-mell in the same bag.—Talleyrand.

FREE SHADE TREES.

Free distribution of shade trees by the city administration has become an annual custom in Denver. Nearly 20,000 young trees were given to the people this spring and they are all planted.

The custom has been in vogue for five years and each year it is becoming more popular and the demand for trees is increasing. This season the requests for trees exceeded the supply by several thousand, but as the limit of the sum available for the purchase of trees is made by the city council the appropriation could not be exceeded. The sum appropriated was $5,000 and the average price paid per tree was 29 cents.

When the city of Denver was laid out fifty-one years ago there was not a tree on the site. The early settlers began planting cottonwood trees, believing this was the only kind that would thrive in Colorado soil. In after years experiments were made with other species. Today the streets in the older sections of the city are lined with tall, spreading shade trees and the stranger is astonished when informed that this prolific growth of shade trees has taken place within a generation.

Denver covers sixty square miles of territory and most of the young trees are being set out in the newer sections of the city. Maple, elm and poplar are the kinds that are distributed by the city. The elm, however, seems to be in greater demand, as this species apparently thrives better in that climate. The maple grows faster and is the better shade producer, but it is not so hardy as the elm.

The method of distribution is upon orders signed by the mayor or a member of the council. The limit is three trees to one person. Ten days previous to the date set for giving out the trees the public is informed through the daily newspapers of the rules to govern the distribution. Tree stations are established in different sections of the city. The young trees are set in the ground nursery fashion, and to avoid a crush, fences are erected. One entrance to the enclosure and two exits are provided and applicants are required to pass along in single file. As each order is presented three nursery trees are handed out, the applicant being permitted to choose from the kind on hand. The line is kept moving rapidly and the trees are all distributed in one day.

The forestry department of the city has kept careful check on the growth of the trees planted since the first "tree day" was established. Knowledge on the subject of tree planting is disseminated among the people. Men from this department tour the city while the young trees are being planted and give advice and instructions when needed.

Last year 82 per cent of the trees planted lived and are thriving. It is expected that the percentage will be increased this year, as the people are becoming educated in tree plating and culture.

RING OUT THE BELLS.

Senator Lodge has introduced a bill to authorize the secretary of the treasury to accept a peal of bells for the tower of the new custom house in Boston as a present from Mrs. Sarah Cabot Welhweirgth xzfixu fifi Sarah Cabot Wheelwright. The bells are of Engish manufacture, and if the bill is passed they would be imported free of duty.

For an ardent protectionist, who regards consumers as "myths" and the tariff as having nothing to do with high prices, this is rather inconsistent with the principles of the Massachusetts statesman. On the other hand, Chairman Payne and his protectionist associates are of the opinion that if Mrs. Wheelwright wishes to make a present of a peal of bells to Boston she will have no difficulty in obtaining one of American manufacture.

Protests against the bill have been sent in by bell makers in different parts of the country on the ground that it would be a discrimination against American industry. The committee on ways and means, in its jealous care of the fame of American bell makers, as well as of American industry, holds that these imported chimes on the Boston custom house would ring out a constant imputation upon human skill and talent.

THE ROAD MAKERS.

New York's state highway commissioner is proceeding with a vigor which will excite attention and cause progressive legislators in other states to study her highway construction system. The commission has just advertised for proposals for the improvement of fifty-seven miles of state roads and 145 miles of country highways. The total cost of the roads covered by the contracts of February and April is $5,242,000.

A physician says a man is just as old as his blood vessels, no matter when he was born. Still, it will be difficult to convince the public that a man whose blood vessels are only 35 is no older than that if he has lost his teeth and his hair and can no longer run for a car without getting out of breath.

Uncle Sam has issued a cook book. Evidently he has harkened to the suggestion of the wise woman who said that the best way to have a happy home is to "feed the brute." And Uncle Sam wants happy homes all over the land. So he is not only issuing the book, but he is also giving it away.

Investment-Savings

Practically all investments begins with saving.

You must have money to put to work so that it will earn more money.

It has repeatedly been said by successful men, who started in a small way, that the first thousand dollars was the hardest to save—after thaa it easier. The interest earned was a great help.

Have you started saving your first thousand dollars?

If not, do it at once. One dollar will start you. 3 per cent compound interest will keep it growing.

WALSH IS NOT INSANE

Rumor of His Being Mentally Unbalanced Proves Untrue.

Kansas City, Mo., May 20.—A rumor that Thomas Walsh, former banker of Chicago, had suffered a partial loss of mental faculties in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth is without foundation. Walsh refuses to see visitors.

He is engaged in the newspaper exchange room on the third floor of the administration building in the prison, one floor higher than any visitors or others having business with the warden, whose offices are on the second floor, ever get.

When he went into the prison Walsh asked the authorities to relieve him of the necessity of dodging sightseers. The government respects the wishes of its prisoners in this respect whenever possible.

When Walsh went into prison he was sent to the infirmary, where he remained a week. Major McClughry, the prison warden, meantime made a place for him in the news room. Walsh seldom sees a prison guard. When a correspondent of the Post asked to be allowed to see Walsh the "exchange editor" declined.

To Awaken a Man and They All Lodged in His Body.

Pittsburg, Ky., May 20.—After having attempted in vain to awaken William Hubbard by calling him, beating upon his door and otherwise creating a disturbance in the vicinity, Roy Turner, 14 years old, early yesterday hit upon the plan of firing his revolver.

Hubbard, who was an employe of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad company, had made his domicile in a boarding car of the company, with instructions to Turner to awaken him early.

After firing five shots Turner entered the car to find that all five of his bullets had taken effect in Hubbard's body, killing the latter instantly.

THE FRYING PAN CASE

It Finally Had to Be Dismissed at Columbia, Mo.

Columbia, Mo., May 20—The absence of "exhibit A" in Justice Bicknell's court caused the dismissal of what is known as the "Frying Pan case," for the much litigated skillet could not be found by the constable whose duty it was to convey it to court.

The frying pan has a history. Fred Carroll, a popcorn vendor, brought suit for the pan, claiming that he bought it for 25 cents from Long & Son when their stock was sold at auction.

The pan was sold later to G. L. Leighton, of the Columbia Catering company, for three times this amount. Carroll brought a replevin suit, which was dismissed when it was found that it had been brought against Leighton personally instead of the catering company which he represented. When the case in its proper form was called for hearing the kitchen utensil of questioned ownership had disappeared and the suit was finally dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff.

BARBER COLLEGES

PROPRIETOR OF TWO TAKES STEPS TO PREVENT REVOKING OF LICENSE.

FREE SHAVES GIVEN BY STUDENTS

Mr. A. B. Moler Denies That the Statutes Were Violated, as Alleged by the State Examining Board.

St. Louis, Mo., May 20.—Arthur B. Moler, who conducts several barber colleges and has two in St. Louis, at 1110 Pine street and 710 Market street, filed an injunction suit yesterday in the circuit court against G. D. Marks, C. T. Whisman and J. H. Faust, comprising the barbers' board of examiners of Missouri, to restrain them from carrying out an order stopping Moler from conducting the schools.

Moler claims he has fifteen to forty students in each college and that 1500 persons weekly get free shaves and hair cuts, which gives the students practice. No charge, he claims, is made for work done, and customers pay only a nominal sum of 5 cents for bay rum and other materials furnished.

Monday the board revoked his license, on the ground the colleges were not being conducted according to statute, in that no licensed barber was employed and work was not done free.

Moler claims the board has no authority to revoke his license. No time has been set for the hearing.

ASKS A NEW TRIAL

MOTION ALLEGES JUDGE AND JURORS WERE PREJUDICED AGAINST DEFENDANT.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN AT THE JAIL

Physician Refuses to See Person Bearing Flowers, Saying He Did Not Know Her and Didn't Care To.

Kansas City, Mo., May 20.—Attorneys for Dr. B. C. Hyde late yesterday filed a motion for a new trial for their client. Arguments on the motion will be heard by Judge Latshaw June 4.

Alleging error, the attorneys set forth the following to prove their assertions:

That Judge Latshaw showed prejudice against the defendant, and that he acted improperly toward Dr. Hyde's counsel.

That evidence other than that touching directly upon the death of Col. Thomas H. Swope should not have been admitted into the record.

That the jurors were moved to convict the physician more by passion and prejudice than by reflection on testimony.

That the court should have forced the state to give to the defense the letters passing between the prosecution and its scientists.

That evidence that was incompetent was admitted and that competent evidence was barred.

Dr. Hyde's attorneys are investigating a rumor that one of the jurymen said before he was selected that he would do certain things if he were allowed to serve. This alleged incident is not mentioned in the motion.

A mysterious "woman in black," who says she is Mrs. D. H. Adkins, of New York, called at the jail yesterday with a large box of roses and desired to be permitted to take the flowers to the physician. Dr. Hyde said he did not know her. She was refused admission to the jail. When she left she took the roses with her.

Miss Laura Hyde, a sister of Dr. Hyde, has decided to live here with Mrs. Hyde until the physician's case is fully disposed of. Miss Hyde's home is in Lexington, Mo.

THREW WIFE IN STREET

This Is Charged Against Charles Ripper, of Aurora.

Aurora, Mo., May 20.—Charged by his wife with living entirely up to his name, Charles Ripper will have a hearing before Justice Rickman here today, a formal complaint having been sworn out by his better half, who announces that she has left his bed and board for all time to come and will begin proceedings for a divorce.

A few nights ago, it is alleged, Ripper came home drunk, chastised his helpmeet and threw her into the street. Mrs. Ripper went to the home of a neighbor, where she remained until morning, when she resolved that she would not longer attempt to live with her husband. She returned to get her clothing, and another drubbing was administered to her by her inebriated husband.

SHROUD FOR GIRL

WAS BALLET COSTUME AND IT HAS AROUSED COMMUNITY IN ILLINOIS.

THE CASKET AN EXPENSIVE ONE

Woman Accompanies Body of Supposed Actress and Tells of Her Death and Then Departs in a Hurry.

Watseka, Ill., May 20.—State's Attorney John H. Pallisard has undertaken to solve the mystery surrounding the burial of Delvina Nichols in the costume of a ballet dancer at Iroquois, nine miles east of here, a week ago.

The body was brought ostensibly from Youngstown, Ohio, by a woman who claimed to be the girl's mother.

When the expensive casket was opened by the Rev. Mr. Crumpacker, the Methodist minister, the gay colored shroud was exposed. It was low-necked and the skirt reached only to the knees. Silk stockings and satin slippers were on the corpse.

The woman, who was the sole mourner, got off the same train, saying she came from Houston, Texas, and she left the next day. Only the minister and a few curious bystanders attended the burial.

When the story of the strange burial reached the ears of George Brainard, who had been the girl's guardian before she left her home, four miles north of Iroquois, six years ago, he came to Watseka and reported the facts as known. The state's attorney promised to go there today and investigate.

According to the woman's story, the girl died April 29, at Youngstown, following an operation. Doubt has been expressed at Iroquois that this woman was the girl's mother.

The costly metallic outer box and casket add to the mystery. It is said that they must have cost $300.

The girl was not wealthy and had gone into vaudeville to make her living.

The splendid work of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is daily coming to light. No such grand remedy for liver and bowel troubles was ever known before. Thousands bless them for curing constipation, sick headache, biliousness, jaundice and indigestion. Sold by all dealers.

AN EXPERT'S OPINION ON SKIN DISEASES.

A prominent national expert on skin diseases whose name you are familiar with says that in all his scientific experience he has never found so hard a disease to conquer as Eczema. Yet he does not hesitate to recommend ZEMO as a most successful remedy for the treatment of Eczema, itching skin diseases, dandruff, pimples, blackheads and all other diseases of the skin and scalp. He says that not only do its curative qualities make it popular but also the fact that it is a clean, liquid remedy for external use. A great improvement over the old style greasy salves and lotions which are not only unpleasant to use but do not destroy the germ life that causes the disease. ZEMO draws the germs to the surface and destroys them, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Can be used freely on infants. Mr. Dan Wilcox will gladly supply those who call with a free sample bottle of ZEMO and a booklet which explains in simple language all about skin diseases and how to cure yourself at home with ZEMO.

SHORT ON BABIES

THIS IS THE REPORT SENT OUT FROM SAN ANTONIO IN A PRESS DISPATCH.

WAITED IN VAIN FOR FOUNDLINGS

A Carload Had Been Promised by New York Asylum People, but Were Disposed of Before Lone Star State Was Reached.

San Antonio, Texas, May 20.—If you have any spare babies, up to the number of thirty or thereabouts, send them to this city, but don't attach any string to their future status.

The milk in the cocoa is that there are in this city thirty women who were promised a baby each by the New York foundling and orphan asylum, but who were disappointed because the babies never came.

Ostensibly, the wee ones did not appear on the scene, because they were in great demand in the territory through which they passed; but there is said to have also been a contributory cause.

The fact that the babies would be given only into Catholic homes created quite a stir among would-be mothers of the other denominations, and is even said to have caused them to write to Governor Campbell protesting against this unjust discrimination.

The state's executive looked into the matter and found that the babies would be well taken care of by local Catholics, and for this reason saw no cause why he should interfere.

Whether San Antonio got no babies on account of this action taken, or whether it was simply a case of exhausted supply, is hard to say at this time.

At any rate, the babies did not come, ad the crowd of women which met the train on which the hairns were scheduled to arrive went home disappointed.

Any one wishing to make up a car load of youngsters will have no trouble in disposing of them in this city and Southwest Texas. But there should be some variety. Tow-heads and blue eyes are the favorites.

NO matter how good an over skirt, it always requires the proper under skirt in order for you to be properly dressed. So solid is this rule that it works both ways—you can't have the benefit of a good underskirt unless it is covered with a good overskirt. We realize this and so, we run our special skirt and underskirt sale together in order to make a gala occasion for you to be properly skirted.

LEAPS TO DEATH IN RIVER

Woman Was Despondent; Shock May Kill Husband.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 20.—"Help, help, I'm dying; O please save me!" were the exclamations of Mrs. Morris Cushman, wife of the proprietor of a department store at 619 South Eighth street, after she had leaped into the seething waters of the Missouri river, just north of the Grand Island bridge, yesterday.

An aged negro went to her rescue, but too late to save her life. She was 24 years old, and became despondent through illness. Her husband collapsed when informed of her suicide and may die.

LITTLE SUFFERER FROM ECZEMA

Grew Worse in Spite of Six Months of Ablest Treatment—Sleep Terribly Broken—Face, Head and Hands Masses of Dreadful Humor.

A SINGLE SET OF CUTICURA CURED HIM

"I feel it my duty to let you know with what success I have used the Cuticura Remedies. When our baby was seven weeks old he broke out with what we thought was heat but which gradually grew worse. We called in a doctor. He said it was eczema and from that time we doctored six months with three of the best doctors in Atchison but he only got worse. His face, head and hands were a solid sore. There was no end to the suffering for him. We had to tie his little hands to keep him from scratching. He never knew what it was to sleep well from the time he took the disease until he was cured. He kept us awake all hours in the night and his health wasn't what you would call good. We tried everything but the right thing. Finally I got a set of the Cuticura Remedies and am pleased to say we did not use all of them until he was cured. We have waited a year and a half to see if it would return but it never has and to-day his skin is clear and fair as it possibly could be. I hope Cuticura may save some one else's little one's suffering and also their pocket-books. John Leason, 1403 Atchison St., Atchison, Kan., Oct. 19, 1909."

Cuticura comfort for all who suffer from facial eruptions such as acne (pimples and blackheads), acne rosacea, facial eczema, ringworm, tetter, redness, roughness and oily perspiration is found in gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment followed by warm baths with Cuticura Soap. DIDN'T MEAN MISSOURI

Mr. Bryan Will Not Campaign the State for Prohibition.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 20.—In order to correct conflicting press reports growing out of Mr. Bryan's recent address in St. Louis and his alleged relation to the liquor question in Missouri, Cornelius Roach, secretary of state, a few days ago mailed a letter of inquiry to Mr. Bryan. Mr. Roach has received the following reply:

"Your favor at hand. There is no ground for the report that I shall campaign the state of Missouri on the prohibition amendment. I am taking part in the discussion of a question here relating to the liquor traffic, but have no present intention of taking part in the discussion in other states. Very truly yours—W. J. Bryan"

Was In Nevada to Attend Session of Court.

Nevada, Mo., May 20.—While in this city to attend a session of the county court, Robert Dean, judge for the North district, died suddenly in bed yesterday morning.

He was a democrat, as are the other two members of the court, and a movement was immediately started among democratic leaders to try and have Gov. H. S. Hadley name a democrat for the vacancy. The republicans in the county will petition the governor to name a republican.

NO POLITICS IN IT

RECEPTION TO BE EXTENDED TO COL. ROOSEVELT SATURDAY, JUNE 18.

OUR ONLY LIVING EX-PRESIDENT

A Royal Welcome to America's Foremost Private Citizen—What Senator Warner Says in Regard to It.

Washington, May 20.—Senator William Warner, of Missouri, is anxious that his state should be well represented at the reception of Col. Theodore Roosevelt in New York on June 18.

"Colonel Roosevelt enjoys the affection and esteem of a greater proportion of the American people than any ex-President ever did," he said today, "and it is therefore only right that the people should turn out and give him a hearty welcome and congratulate him upon his safe return from the wilds of Africa and his triumphant tour through Europe.

"He exerts as big a force for good as any man in the world today, and yet he holds no office. Every achievement of his abroad has added lustre to our country's name, and I for one wish to see due acknowledgement of the fact made in the form of the biggest gathering of patriots at New York on June 18 ever seen in this or any other country.

"We should come from every quarter and extend him the right hand of good fellowship. This is no political affair. It must be absolutely nonpartisan, else it will fail of is purpose. If it were gotten up by a lot of republican politicians for the purpose of booming or currying favor with a former or prospective boss, I would advise my constituents to have nothing to do with it. Moreover, Theodore Roosevelt would not countenance such a scheme. It is simply to be a good old-fashioned welcome to our foremost private citizen and only living ex-president.

"I am particularly anxious that the delegation from my state shall be well taken care of, and sincerely hope that the proper committees in the several cities will communicate with the Roosevelt Reception Committee, No. 146 Broadway, New York, at once."

IT IS CREATING A WONDERFUL STIR HERE

People all over the town are talking about the wonderful good Root Juice is doing in this community, as it has made many remarkable cures during the past few months. A well known lady who for social reasons does not want her name publishd, said: "I had been in poor health for several years. The doctors gave me medicine for catarrh of the stomach, gastric ulcers, indigestion, dyspepsia and stomach troubles generally, but I derived no benefit. My appetite was variable—sometimes hungry as a wolf, then sickening at the mere thought of food. I was subject to dizzy spells and sick headache. I was thin, weak, despondent and nervous, and had to take some kind of medicine all the time on account of my badly constipated condition. A lady friend told me that she had suffered very much as I did, but that Root Juice had completely cured her, so I concluded to try it, and before I had used the first bottle I was rapidly improving in every way. I continued taking the truly great medicine about six weeks, and if there is anything the matter with me now I don't know it. I now enjoy my food and digest it. I sleep well. I am no longer constipated, weak or nervous, and have plenty of flesh and strength." Such good reports of the great medicine are being heard all over town. It is sold for one dollar a bottle or three bottles for two dollars and a half. Those who are interested can learn of many of the wonderful things it is doing by going to Wilcox's drug store.

BALDWIN WON FROM SMITH

Smith Scored a Knockdown, But Was Outpointed.

New York, May 20.—Matty Baldwin, of Boston, outpointed, outfought and outgeneraled Frankie Smith, the San Francisco lightweight, in their 10-round bout before the Madison Athletic club in Harlem last night.

In only one round, the seventh, did Smith make any showing. In that round he floored Baldwin with a left swing to the jaw.

Smith was fighting strongly at the finish.

FRUIT WILL BE PLENTY

The Crop Will Be Two-Thirds of the Normal in Missouri.

Springfield, Mo., May 20.—Crop conditions throughout the Ozark region were never better in the history of this section, according to reports received here at the general offices of the Frisco system.

The reports indicate that the wheat and oat crop will be good throughout the section, having been greatly benefited by the recent rains.

The fruit crop, however, is the comer for this year, and it is estimated that the crop will be fully two-thirds of normal all over the section, which means that this will be the bumper year for some time, and that fruit will be shipped from many stations in train load shipments.

The peaches were only slightly damaged by the late frosts, and all orchards on high ground will yield. The apple crop will be especially large this year.

The strawberry crop will be about one-half, as it has been damaged to a certain extent by the late spring. Warm weather for the next few weeks would bring the crop out wonderfully, however, as it would force many new blooms.

PAPKE IN THE SIXTEENTH

Joe Thomas Was Defeated in a Slugging Affair.

San Francisco, May 20. — Joe Thomas' attempt to re-establish himself as a middle weight champion received a rude setback in his fight last night at Dreamland rink with Billy Papke, the Illinois Thunderbolt.

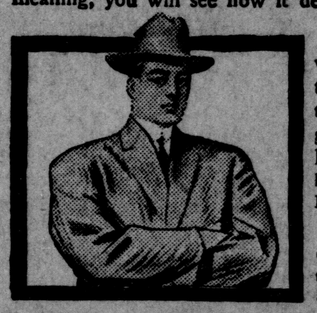

It took Papke sixteen rounds to relegate the Californian to the list of has beens. A right swing high on the body sent Thomas to the mat. This was followed by several rights delivered with crushing force which floored Thomas for the count.

A match with Ketchel for the championship next month is assured the victor. The consensus of opinion among fight followers is that Papke on his showing last night will have to improve considerably to stand a chance with the "Michigan Assassin."

Although defeated, Thomas gave a very good account of himself and for a while held the Kenwanee lad even.

ACCUSES BROTHER

JIMMIE LOWE, A GOVERNMENT WITNESS, IS ARRESTED IN ST. LOUIS.

BOX CAR MURDER NOW CHARGED

Crime, Alleged to Have Been Committed in 1906, Being Investigated by Police—Not Given Much Credence.

St. Louis, Mo., May 20.—Charged by his convicted brother, "Bill" Lowe, with having murdered a man in a box car in 1906, "Jimmie" Lowe, whose testimony aided the federal government yesterday in convicting "Bill" Lowe, the Missouri Pacific train robber, was arrested by two city detectives yesterday afternoon about 2:45 o'clock in the office of United States Marshal Morsey. "Jimmie" Lowe had just received his check for $94 witness fees for being detained in the Warrenton, Mo., jail since Feb. 15.

Jimmie thought he was clear of all his troubles. District Attorney Houts gave him a formal dismissal as witness. Jimmie took the dismissal to the United States district clerk's office, where he was given a voucher. Then Detective Finan and Special Officer Campbell got him. He walked to the marshal's office, where he cashed his voucher in favor of his aged mother, who testified in his brother's behalf.

When he received the check and was formally through with the case against his brother he became a prisoner on Chief Young's orders.

Jimmie Lowe is locked up at police headquarters, while Chief Young is investigating a rumor, originating with "Bill" Lowe, for revenge, the chief thinks, that Jimmie murdered a man in a box car near Rutger street and the Iron Mountain railroad tracks in 1906. Jimmie declares the matter is a joke and that his brother is trying to get even.

More than a month ago Bill Lowe sent a message to Chief of Detectives Smith, saying he wished to see him. Smith sent two detcctives to the city jail to see the train robber. Lowe refused to talk to them and sent word back for Chief Smith to come personally. Smith acquiesced, but when he entered Lowe's cell the prisoner declared he had changed his mind and would say nothing.

A few weeks later Chief Young received a similar message, and sent Detectives Miller and Campbell. Lowe told them, it is said, that his brother had committed a murder in 1906, but would give them no further details of the crime. The police records show no crime of that nature committed at the time and place mentioned which has not been cleared up, and Chief Young believes Bill Lowe is merely making the statement to get his brother into trouble. The investigation is being made merely to place the police department on the safe side, according to Chief Young.

W. W. Lowe was yesterday convicted of robbing the mail cars on the Missouri Pacific railroad at Glencoe, Mo., on Jan. 21, and given the maximum sentence by United States District Judge David P. Dyer of forty-three years at the Leavenworth prison, Leavenworth, besides a fine of $3,000.

The convicted bandit was tried on seven counts, the principal one being holding up mail cars with firearms, for which he was given twenty-five years. He was given three years in prison additional on each of the other six counts, which were of cutting open six mail sacks. George Ebeling, who pleaded guilty to the same crime and turned state's witness, has not yet been sentenced. The jury reached its verdict in ten minutes.

Attorney L. C. Dyer, for the defendant, in his address to the jury scored both George Ebeling and Jimmie Lowe for testifying for the government and asked the jury not to believe them. District Attorney C. A. Houts made a speech that disposed of Bill's testimony that he was mistaken for a man named "George Austin."

Last night Chief of Police Young gave out a statement that he would probably release Jimmie Lowe this morning. He sent special officers to 2431 Fall avenue, the home of his aunt and cousin, Mrs. Kiel and Mrs. Woods. Neither woman could enlighten the police very much about the alleged murder. Every murder in that year, but one at Seventh and Hickory streets, has been cleared up. There is no report of a murder committed in a box car.

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said:

"'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.

Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

A SECRET NO LONGER

Practical and Easy Plan Which Carries Beauty With It Everywhere.

For the woman who owns a Harlan Beauty Cup there are no "massage secrets," because with this wonderful appliance better results can be secured, and in quicker time, than by any expert hand operator. The Beauty Cup is made of pure Para rubber, acts by a gentle vacuum process, and in addition to quickly dispelling wrinkles, has a marked curative effect by the manipulation it gives the skin both on and beneath the surface.

In the same laboratory which makes the Beauty Cup, the famous Crown Cream is produced. This is unquestionably the leading face cream of America—a position won by merit. No other toilet cream can perform the same service, because Crown Cream possesses healing and nourishing ingredients not to be had elsewhere. Even without massage it is a wonderful restorer of wasted and pallid complexions, giving new tone and energy to the starved tissues. Used in connection with the Beauty Cup a quality of massage is secured, that cannot be had by any other means. While it is more mild than hand massage, it is vastly more effective. Crown Cream retails everywhere at 50c a jar, and this is the price of the Beauty Cup as well. If your dealer has not these goods, waste no time but order direct from the Harlan Mfg. Co., Toledo, O., and the article will come prepaid upon receipt of the price.

MAY LIFT A "BOYCOTT"

That Against Cleveland Club of American League.

Cleveland, May 20.—The boycott against the Cleveland baseball club may be lifted within a few weeks. It will be if Charles Somers, vice president of the Cleveland club; Ban Johnson, president of the American league, and John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers, can bring about a settlement with the Building trades and Typographical union of Cleveland, which have had a grievance against the ball club management since the erection of the big grand stands last winter.

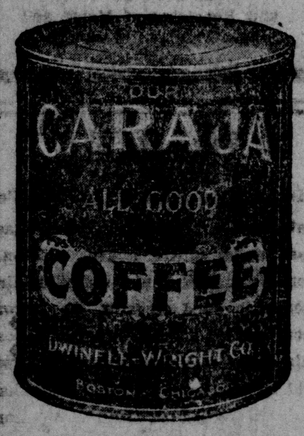

Somers, with Johnson, met Mitchell. The trio got busy and the whole situation was thrashed out. Definite action was postponed for two weeks, but it was the belief of both sides that the trouble would be adjusted and that by the time of the return of the Naps there would be nothing against them so far as organized labor is concerned.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

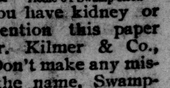

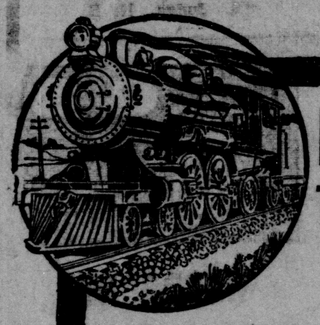

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.

Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

and Less. Will You Buy Some?

If you had a partner in business who would furnish all the capital, do all the work, pay all the expenses, bear all the losses and then give you half of the profits, wouldn't you think you had the best partner on earth? That's exactly what happens when you buy your GROCERIES, FLOUR, FEED, ETC., from me.

If you, the buyer, the customer, the creator of profits, don't get back in cash a part of the profits you create every time you make a purchase, it is not my fault—for if you make that purchase of me and thereby make me a profit, I will be as good to you as you are to me, and you will get back at once in cash a part of that profit.

Of course, if you have money to burn or to give away and don't need to make your dollar go as far as possible, my proposition doesn't appeal to you; but if the reverse is true, it does.

Mine is a PROFIT-SHARING PLAN, STRICTLY—which means, when you put a dollar profit in my pocket by your patronage, a part of that $ ought to be returned to you, and it shall and will be—not in tickets or merchandise, premiums, etc., but in CASH—not at some future time, but at the time the purchase is made, right then. YOUNG GIRL DETECTIVE

Philadelphia Pa., May 20.—Through detective work by her 14-year-old sister, Alberta Connord, 16 years old, who disappeared from her Camden home last Friday, was found last night in a house at Seventh and Spring Garden streets, this city, where, with Arthur Williams, a married man, also of Camden, she was arrested.

Mrs. Margaret Connord, mother of the girl, had reason to believe that she and the man were in this city, and on Saturday Lenora, a 14-year-old sister, started a search. A friend told her that she had seen Alberta going into the house at Seventh and Spring Garden streets. Leonora went home for her mother, returned and invoked the aid of the police, and the arrests followed.

AN UP-TO-DATE DRUGGIST

Says it is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which goes to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy nothing equaling our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or garret for herbs and making the tea for ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Compan, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

CAUGHT A BURGLAR

THIRTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY WHO HAD PLENTY OF GRIT AND SOME TO SPARE.

HE FOLLOWED MIDNIGHT PROWLER

Knocked Him Down With a Brick—Getting Up, Fled Without Booty, When Pursuing Lad Took Possession of It.

San Antonio, Texas, May 20.—Thirteen-year-old Milton Applewhite, of this city, is a good neighbor; incidentally, he knows how to take care of burglars.

Puzzled as to what a man should be doing in the residence of a next-door neighbor, he decided to await results, and was ready for action when a few minutes afterwards an individual of doubtful appearance left the house with a large bundle under his arm.

Milton surmised that the man was a burglar and asked him what he had in the bundle. To this the man made no reply other than to speed down the road.

But the youngster proved equal to the occasion. Picking up the half of a brick he started after the man and soon gained on him.

When less than ten feet behind the burglar the boy threw the brick with all his strength and succeeded in landing it neatly on the head of the pursued, causing him to fall to the ground in a groggy condition.

Not waiting for further developments, the thief took again to his heels as soon as he could, while the boy staggered home under the weight of the loot.

As a reward for his act Milton has been presented with a new suit by the neighbor.

ECLIPSE OF MOON MAY 23

Total Eclipse and Halley's Comet on the Same Night.

Halley's comet will have a serious rival for favor Monday, May 23, when the moon for the first time in several years, will go into total eclipse. The phenomenon of a disappearing Luna and a visible comet will be witnessed, provided weather conditions are right.

The time table for this astronomical event is given by Fr. Martin S. Brennan, of St. Louis, as follows: Moon enters penumbra, 8:31 p. m.; total begins, 11:08 p. m.; middle of eclipse, 11:33 p. m.; total ends, 11:59 p. m.; moon leaves shadow, 1:21 a. m., May 24; leaves penumbra, 2:35 a. m.

The eclipse will begin on what appears to the earth as the north edge of the moon's disc. The comet at the same time will be high in the western heavens, creating a most unusual spectacle of the skies. After May 19, the comet will appear in the west each evening instead of showing up in the east as a morning star, as it does now.

Fr. Brennan says the comet on May 23 will be so near the earth that its motion will almost be apparent.

PASSION PLAY IS GIVEN

First Performance of Season Presented at Oberammergau.

Oberammergau, Upper Bavaria, Germany, May 20.—The first regular performance of the Passion play for this season was given last Sunday. The weather was glorious and in delightful contrast to that which attended the recent rehearsals when the actors suffered severely from the cold in the open air theater. At that time there were frequent flurries of snow, but Sunday was warm and sunshiny.

When the performance began there were fully 4,000 persons present. The play went with its accustomed smoothness and the acting was excellent. This year it received its first official sanction from the holy see.

The nearest approach to this was in 1900, when the pope granted an audience to Anton Lang after he appeared in the role of Christus. Sunday the papal nuncio celebrated a special mass for the performers to whom the public conveyed a message of greeting from his holiness.

My Corns Don't Hurt a Bit

Tired, Ailing, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet, Corns, Callouses and Bunions, TIZ Cures Right Off.

Say good-bye to your corns the very first time you use TIZ. You will never know you have a corn, bunion or callous, or sweaty, tired, swollen, aching feet any more. It's just wonderful the way the pain vanishes. Rub the corn—hammer it with your fist if you wish—no more pain after TIZ than if there had never been a blemish on your feet. Doesn't that sound good to you? Doesn't it? Then read this.

"The corns on either of my toes were as large as the tablets you make to cure them. Today there is no sign of corns on either foot and no soreness. It's an up-to-date God-send."—Sam. A. Hoover, Progress, N. C.

Just use TIZ. It's not like anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principal of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25c per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

I GOT A BRAND NEW NOSE

Was Cut From His Leg and Now Worn By a Hoosier.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 20.—Henry Bond, whose nose was sliced off by Henry Dance, in a fight in the Claypool kitchen, appeared in police court Wednesday wearing a very serviceable nose that had been cut from his leg, and spliced on in place of the missing member.

Bond has been in the City hospital since the fight about a month ago, and the hospital surgeons arranged the substitute by grafting a little skin from Bond's own leg. The result of their work is very satisfactory to Bond, and indeed according to all who saw Bond in court, he now has a very handsome nose.

Dance was bound over to the grand jury by Judge Collins under $1,000 bond. He is charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

LORIMER MAY "EXPLAIN"

Refuses to Affirm, However, That He Will Arraign Accusers.

Chicago, May 20.—The Chicago Daily News and the Chicago Daily Journal last afternoon printed stories to the effect that Senator Lorimer will make a speech in the senate in Washington next week, arraigning those who allege that his election was procured by means of bribery.

The senator refused either to affirm or deny the statement.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says, "Put it on the label if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good!! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

HUSTLED OFF TO JAIL

Mrs. Forbes Fails to Pay Judgment In Alienation Suit.

Bridgeport, Conn., May 20.—Jessie Livingston Forbes, wife of A. Holland Forbes, the famous New York aeronaut, and defendant in the sensational alienation suit brought by Mrs. Ida Rowley, of New York, was taken to the county jail here yesterday, because she had failed to satisfy the judgment for $3,750 obtained against her by Mrs. Rowley.

Mrs. Forbes still is confined within the jail limits, notwithstanding that her husband has furnished a bond of $5,000 for her. Mr Forbes returned from Kentucky just after his wife had been taken to jail. He had not entirely recovered from his injuries received in the fall of his balloon.

In the Rowley suit Mrs. Forbes was charged with alienating the affections of Ernest Rowley, her chauffeur. Mrs. Rowley sued for $75,000 damages.

Mrs. Forbes denied the charges against her in the suit and characterized the suit as an effort at blackmail. Mr. Forbes declared that it was an attempt to blackmail him and swore that he would defend the action to the last ditch. When the case was called for trial, on April 18 last, however, Mrs. Forbes did not appear, and judgment was taken against her by default. Judge Curtiss assessed damages at $3,750.

Saloon Thought No. 397

Alabama is still DRY and will remain so.

F. M. Jackson, secretary of the Jefferson County Building and and Loan Association, Birmingham, Ala., writes under date of January 29, 1910: "I am pleased to tell you that since prohibition went into effect about two years ago, THE VALUE OF PROSPERITY HAS ADVANCED, AND THE VOLUME OF BUSINESS HAS LARGELY INCREASED."

"The elimination of the saloon in THIS INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT has UNQUESTIONABLY WORKED TO THE ADVANTAGE OF ALL."

"In Birmingham alone during the eighteen months of prohibition ending June 1st, 1909, the decrease in arrests over the previous year and a half for all offenses, was 6,491, and the Birmingham News of recent date has this significant item: 'No trials at the morning session of the police court; session lasted about ten minutes.'"

NINETEEN ALABAMA communities, with a total population of 201,000, report a decrease of arrests for all offenses, of more than TWELVE THOUSAND IN ONE YEAR OF PROHIBITION.

ENGINEER STOPS TRAIN AND CAPTURES CLOD THROWER WHO HIT HIM.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

While the Indianapolis & Vincennes fast passenger train was speeding along between Bruceville and Bicknell, Ind., last afternoon, Lee Small, 21 years old, stopped his team of mules, got off his plow and threw a clod at the train.

The missile struck Engineer William Dorsey, of Indianapolis, on the head. Dorsey stopped his train, dismounted and for 200 yards pursued Small and took him prisoner. At Bruceville, Dorsey telephoned the Vincennes police to meet his train.

In jail, Small said he threw the clod because a companion plowman bantered him and his aim was truer than he expected.

FALSE BOTTOM TRUNK

Iron Produced in Court as One Mrs. Chesbrough Had on Boat.

Trenton, N. J., May 20—Mrs. Matilda M. Chesbrough, of Newton, Mass., testified during her trial on the charge of smuggling yesterday that she had bought in Paris a large trunk with a false bottom because she thought the board comprising the false bottom would be convenient for ironing articles of clothing. A flat-iron was produced in court which Mrs. Chesbrough testified she had used to press her clothing.

Judge Rellstab expressed surprise at the motion of the district attorney to prevent defendant's husband from testifying in her behalf, remarking that the husband's testimony would be competent in the New Jersey courts.

District Attorney Vreeland was fortified by decisions. Judge Rellstab said that he had not considered the subject and adjourned the trial until today.

Mrs. Chesbrough was examined in detail as to the purchase of numerous articles of clothing, including two sets of furs, a locket, a coral necklace, some pearls and jewelry. She told where most of these articles had been purchased in this country. She had taken abroad one set of furs and, finding that they were out of fashion, had sent to this country for another set, which she had remodeled in France.

NO ONE NEED BE POOR

Millionaire Who Never Gave Probably Left Money to Princeton.

Boston, May 20.—It is predicted that Princeton University will get the bulk of the estate of Isaac C. Wyman, the millionaire, who died in Salem Wednesday.

So far as known Mr. Wyman had but three objects of affection—money, knowledge and Princeton. He never spoke with any show of sentiment except of the university, from which he graduated in 1848, and from which he received the degree of A. M. thirteen years later.

He was never known to make a gift of any sort. He frequently said that there must be something the matter with the poor, as no one need be without wealth when it was so easy to get. His one diversion was the collection of antiques and his only dissipation an occasional novel. One of his most treasured possessions is a bit of coarse tattered paper which reads:

"Roxbury, Jan. 1, 1776.—Received of John Wyman the sum of £8,000, the same to be devoted to the maintenance of the army under my command.—George Washington."

SYNOD IN SESSION

FIFTY DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE AT GERMAN EVANGELICAL CHURCH.

OPENING SERVICE THIS MORNING

The Rev. H. Limper, of Blackburn, Conducted the Devotional Exercises—Will Not Wind Up Until Sunday Night.

(From Thursday's Daily)

The annual conference of Western Missouri of the Evangelical Synod for North America convened at the German Evangelical church on West Fourth street at 9 o'clock this morning, with more than fifty delegates answering the roll call.

The convention opened with devotional exercises by the Rev. H. Limper, of Blackburn, Mo., after which the Rev. N. Rieger, of Higginsville, Mo., read his annual report.

This was followed by the report of the vice president, the Rev. C. Hoffman, of Jefferson City, showing the amount of the various contributions to the different churches in the district.

This was followed by the reports of the Sunday school committee, committee on parochial schools, young people's societies and associations, and a detailed report of the committee on the regulation of a home for superanuated ministers at Blue Springs, Mo.

A general discussion of various topics ensued after the adoption of the reports, and at 12 o'clock the conference adjourned for noon recess.

The afternoon session opened with a secret meeting for ministers, followed by a report of the apportionment system as adopted by the Evangelical synod by the Rev. F. C. Klick, of St. Joseph, Mo.

The remainder of the afternoon session, which will adjourn at 5:30 o'clock, was devoted to the transaction of general business.

The conference closes with Sunday night's services.

WABASH TRAIN DITCHED

Five Persons Hurt in Wreck Near Carrollton.

Carrollton, Mo., May 19.—Wabash train No. 12, eastbound, was ditched at White Rock, ten miles east of this city, yesterday. All the train except the diner went off the track. The cars were badly broken up.

Two engines were pulling the train when it ran into a herd of cattle on the track. The track was soft from recent rains and both engines, a baggage car, a smoker and two day coaches were derailed.

Both firemen and three others were badly injured and were taken to Moberly on a work train.

Two men and one woman have ended their lives in the same manner since the building was erected.

NOT SEE MOTHER

MRS. FRANCES HYDE HAS NO DESIRE FOR A RECONCILIATION AT PRESENT.

SHE DOES NOT HESITATE TO SAY SO

"Treason to My Husband," Says Wife of Convicted Man, When Approached by Reporter in Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., May 19.—Mrs. Frances Swope Hyde, whose husband, Dr. B. Clarke Hyde, stands convicted of murdering her aged uncle, Col. Thomas H. Swope, will never return to her mother's home until her husband can be welcomed there as an innocent man.

"What I told mother the night I left with Clark is true today," said Mrs. Hyde. "I will never enter that door again unless Clark can go with me and be received as an innocent man.

"My mother has been cruel and unjust in prosecuting Clark on a charge of which he is innocent. Until she comes to me and tells me she believes she was mistaken, and is sorry, I cannot enter her home. I can not hope she will do that, for I know she is sincere, though I cannot understand how she is."

Rev. George W. Hyde, of Lexington, father of the condemned man, said to a reporter yesterday:

"Why, Frances (Mrs. B. Clark Hyde) could prove him innocent if they would let her talk, but she had to be silent on that matters that would have cleared her husband. What a brave little woman she is.

"I don't think she will ever go back to her mother under any circumstances."

It is said that had Dr. Hyde been ordered to the penitentiary pending an appeal of his case Mrs. Hyde would have taken up her residence at Jefferson City, so as to be near her husband.

FIGHT FOR FRISCO

"TEX" RICKARD AND GLEASON SURE OF GETTING PERMIT IN THE CITY.

NO CHANCE TO STOP THE BOUT

Big Open Air Arena May Be Built for This Event—Johnson In Better Condition Than Jeffries.

San Francisco, Cal., May 19.—The Johnson-Jeffries fight of July 4 will be held in San Francisco. The fighters and promoters have made up their minds to this fact, and the Emeryville race track idea has been adandoned.

Promoters Tex Rickard and Jack Gleason got busy last night working on the new location idea, and tickets sold for the Emeryville arena will be good in the Frisco arena and will be taken care of as originally planned.

The promoters are somewhat worried about the talk going the rounds that the fight will not take place at all. They only think this will stop the sale of tickets in states outside of California, and are impressing on the minds of the public as much as possible the fact that there is not hardly a chance to stop the fight here. If it is not held in California, it will go to Nevada, and the promoters declare they will take care of every fight fan who has planned to go to the coast.

Tex Rickard stated positively last night that he has assurances enough that the fight will not be interfered with to go ahead and build the arena, and he is preparing now to build one, if one of the Frisco arenas can not be secured or is not thought to be large enough.

Betting on the fight has not been brisk of late because of the talk of stopping it, but it is known that Jeffries' backers are demanding 8 to their 10 and the betting may go up to even money in a short time. The condition of Jeffries is still causing a little alarm, and the negro being in such fine shape is causing many to believe that he will win and they are backing their belief with real coin. Few Jeffries backers are anxious to bet anything this week.

No difficulty in securing permission to hold the fight here is anticipated for the promoters, but in order to comply with articles of agreement covering the battle it will be necessary for Rickard and Gleason to have the city officials make a special concession relative to the number of rounds.

Forty-five rounds or no fight, say the regulations in effect, and that is just twenty-five rounds more than is included in the purview of the local ordinance governing boxing exhibitions. It is thought, however, that no objection will be forthcoming from the authorities to the extension of this particular event beyond the usual limit. The permit is expected to be granted next Monday afternoon.

In view of the new turn the situation has taken, the filing by Louis Blot and Milton T. Clark, representatives of a local athletic club, of a petition for leave to build a big open air arena within the city limits is looked upon as significant.

REPORT THEFT OF $3,411

Coffeyville, Kas., May 19.—Two men overpowered Tom Pridgeon in the Iron Mountain restaurant yesterday and looted his safe in which he had $3,410 to cash Missouri Pacific pay checks.

He had gotten the money from one of the banks in order to accommodate any one wanting his check cashed. The police are working on the case.

COMET TO BE SEEN

THE BIG SHOW IS CERTAIN TO BE PULLED OFF TOMORROW NIGHT.

TO APPEAR JUST AFTER SUNSET

Can Be Seen Right Over Spot Where the Sun Goes Down—Later It Will Look Like Rainbow That Was Cut in Two.

New York, May 19.—Prof. Harold Jacob, of Columbia university, did not remain near his telescope during the period of contact between the earth and the comet's tail last night. He was convinced that absolutely no phenomena worth observing would be noted.

"These comet parties that are being organized to sit out the comet's passage will have a lonesome job," he said in an interview given out.

"The next we shall see of the comet will be such a sight as will really set the people on edge who view it. Last night we were not able to see the comet because it set with the sun. The same will be true tonight. But there will be a great sight in the western sky on Friday night. That is the real night for comet parties.

"When the comet appears, just after sunset, it will be much more brilian than it was last week in the morning sky.

"Look for it right over the spot where the sun goes down, and after the first night or two look for a shaft of light reaching up into the heavens until it seems like a rainbow cut in two."

"DICK" IS LAID TO REST

Faithful Mascot of Fire Boys at Engine House No. 2.

With impressive obsequies, the remains of "Dick," the faithful mascot of Company No. 2, of the Sedalia fire department, were interred at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a lot in the rear of engine house No. 2.

Reposing on the grave of the canine today is a bouquet of flowers, placed there in remembrance of the dog, which met its sudden demise Tuesday while going to a fire on East Third street, being run over by a street car.

For six and one-half years "Dick" had been "custodian" of engine house No. 2. He went to every fire, day or night, running to the blaze, and riding in the hose wagon back to the department headquarters.

"Dick" was known from one end of town to the other, and universal gloom is cast over the members of the fire department as a result of his death.

At the palace the emperor at once proceeded to the apartments of Queen Mother Alexandra.

YOUNG GIRL SAVED

A CHILD CLAD IN WHITE ROBE FACED EXECUTIONER AS SHERIFF ARRIVED.

THEY FEARED END OF THE WORLD

Oklahoma Religious Fanatics Planned Blood Atonement for Sins —Posse Halts Knife Over Girl Martyr.

Aline, Ok., May 19.—Jane Warfield, a 16-year-old girl, was yesterday rescued from a band of religious fanatics twenty-five miles southwest of Aline when she was about to be offered up as a sacrifice to make a blood atonement that the sins of the world might be forgiven.

The sheriff of Dewey county had been informed that the band of religious enthusiasts known as the Select Followers had given out that their leader, Henry Heinman, had received a revelation from God that the world was to end yesterday and the heavens would be rolled up like a scroll following the contact of the tail of the comet; that the only thing that would avert the disaster was a blood sacrifice; that in order to save the world a sacrifice had been planned, and the lot had fallen to Jane Warfield.

Sheriff Hughes had kept trace of their movements closely and finally determined that he should be on the scene. With a posse of six men he reached the dell in the Glass mountains just as the sacrifice was being prepared, and only in time to rescue the young woman who was to be offered to save the world.

The Warfield girl was clad in spotless white, with a wreath of white roses about her head. Her hands were bound and Heinman was standing in front of her with a long, keen hunting knife in his hand. Heinman and his leaders were arrested. About him were groups of his followers, about forty in all.

The Select Followers believe that sin has passed from them and that they can handle serpents and drink poison without evil effect. For some time Heinman has been telling them in his sermons that the world would end on the 18th day of May, and that the comet now in the sky would sweep with pestilential gases across the earth, eliminating all animal life.

Heinman is a religious fanatic and the girl who was yesterday to be offered as a sacrifice is his stepdaughter. He, Tuesday evening, gave out that he had received a revelation that he was to sacrifice the girl, and thus avert the impending world calamity. Sheriff Hughes placed the girl in the hands of safe parties yesterday and Heinman will be held to await the action of investigating officers.

The sect of Select Followers came into the neighborhood of their present residence two years ago, led by Heinman, who is said to be from near Leesburg, Ohio, and a graduate of some Ohio university.

At one time he was a disciple of Harmon, the Free-Thinker, and it is rumored that many of Harmon's ideas have been carried out in the form of worship of the band headed by Heinman. Heretofore they have been looked upon as harmless, the wildness of their religious utterances only being held against them.

Since the incident of yesterday it has been learned that many of them had several weeks ago burned much of their personal belongings, because the world was to end with the contact of the comet's tail.

LEAD SIMPLE LIFE

MISSOURI BUSINESS MAN WAS FOUND SELLING PAPERS AT SHREVEPORT.

BEEN MISSING SINCE FEBRUARY 7

Abandoned a Business Worth $12,000 at Cuba, Mo., and Is Now Perfectly Satisfied to Lead the Simple Life.

St. Louis, Mo., May 19.—To attain the peace of the simple life, Henry H. Tieman, 60 years old, who has a grocery at 4429 Hunt avenue, St. Louis, abandoned a business in Cuba, Mo., worth $12,000, and was found in Shreveport, La., last afternoon in rags, selling newspapers and half starved, according to dispatches here.

He is said to have slept in swamps, gone without food and risen at 4 a. m., but feels free and can sleep now for the first time in his life.

"I will not return home," said Tieman. "Business worries nearly killed me, but now I am free and happy."

The old man disappeared from his home in Cuba February 7, and his family thought for a time he had gone to Joplin to sell some goods. They learned he had not reached Joplin, and a search was started, as foul play was suspected.

He was discovered through a photograph and description of him published in St. Louis newspapers, which told of his disappearance.

When found he was penniless, calling "Extra-" with great zest and attempting to operate a box-ball alley in Shreveport.

"This life may be hard," said the old man, "but it is preferable to one of business anxiety and worry."

ALL WOMEN LIARS

THIS WAS THE ASSERTION OF REV. EDWIN C. BROWNE, OF MOLINE, ILLINOIS.

CITED INSTANCES IN PROOF OF IT

Unitarian Minister Precipitated a Storm in a Conference at a Church Meeting in Chicago.

Chicago, May 19.—"All women are liars. Telling falsehoods is woman's chief sin."

Rev. Edwin C. Browne, of Moline, Ill., said so, "right out in meeting," during a session of the Unitarian conference at the Third Unitarian church, and if ever a figurative bombshell came near acting like the real article, this one did.

Perhaps the only thing that prevented an immediate explosion of the shell among the 200 women present was their awe and surprise.

The storm finally broke when Mrs. C. V. Merserea jumped to her feet and shouted:

"I deny the allegation that all women are liars and defy the 'alligator' to prove what he has said."

As proof the Rev. Mr. Browne offered the following indictments:

"You are not 'at home' when the visitor whom you don't particularly wish to see calls.

"You answer the telephone and, upon hearing a person inquire for you, seek to learn his or her identity without disclosing yours; having discovered it, you volunteer the information you are not at home or you have gone to the country for the time, hypocritically imitating the voice of the maid to the best of your ability while you are telling the falsehoods.

"You become suddenly ill when you wish to avoid fulfilling a social or religious obligation.

"It is that way all through your social life; you have ceased to hesitate about lying."

By this time verbal hostilities on the part of women had ceased, Rev. Mr. Browne started another outbreak by applying the term "liar" to some ministers he knows.

Rev. E. R. Shippen, of Detroit, demanded if the speaker knew the names of the preachers he described. The speaker allowed he did.

SCORE WAS 16 TO 4

Lamonte Defeated the Oklahoma Indians Wednesday.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Lamonte administered a good drubbing to the Oklahoma Indian baseball club at Lamonte Wednesday afternoon, winning a one-sided contest by a score of 16 to 4.

The run getting started in the first inning, when Lamonte had two men circle the bases, and after that the dark-skinned tribe had no chance whatever.

A large crowd witnessed the exhibition, and had it not been for a few spectacular plays it would have been a regular farce. Nelson's daring base running for Lamonte, and Shepherd's pitching for that club were easily the features. Nelson, of Lamonte, stole four bases, one of them being home.

This morning the Indians hit the trail for Sweet Springs, where they play this afternoon.

Bluejacket, a redskin, who at one time played with Sedalia in the old Missouri Valley league, is a member of the barnstormers. The score:

Okla. .....0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0 1—	4	8	4
Lamonte .2 0 2 1 7 0 4 0 *—16	14	2

"SHOCKING."

"Shocking" are the conditions existing in Charles M. Schwab's big steel plant at Bethlehem, Pa., according to Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor.

He adds that similar conditions exist in the entire steel industry and are not peculiar alone to the Schwab plant. Eighty-four hours a week, or an average of twelve hours a day, Sundays included, the slaves of the blast furnaces sweat and toil, according to this agent of the government, month in and month out. Some of them die from overwork and the peculiarly hard conditions of their employment; others are spared this slow, long drawn-out torture by some terrible accident, an almost daily occurrence in the big steel plants, that snuffs out life in a moment. Dante's inferno might be compared to the blast furnaces, but it would be unjust to hades.

Unbearable conditions of employment are not the only evils the steel workers suffer. There have been innumerable revelations of the fact that the steel workers are frightfully underpaid, their wages in most instances being barely sufficient to meagerly clothe the wives and children of the unfortunate employes, leaving little or nothing for a rainy day, or for medical attention in case of illness or accident.

Charles M. Schwab "concedes" that the conditions existing in his plant and others are deplorable, but puts the responsibility on "competitive conditions." Yet Charles M. Schwab knows, as every other intelligent man knows that the steel industry is controlled by a great trust: that the profits of the business are enormous and that the steel workers are enslaved and their wives and children robbed of sufficient food and raiment in order that dividends may be paid on millions of dollars of watered stock.

The conditions in the steel industry are unquestionably "shocking," as Commissioner Neill mildly characterizes them. It is also shocking that such conditions are permitted to exist in this land of boasted freedom and prosperity.

But they are the natural fruits of the protective tariff policy. The steel trust is the chief of the "infant" industries, for whose benefit the robber tariff exists. Mr. Schwab and his associates have become in a few years multimillionaires. The steel workers slave and die; their wives and children suffer and starve. Thus are the beneficene fruits of protection distributed.

THINK ABOUT IT.

The bribery investigation in Illinois goes merrily on, and while the developments of the past few days have not been marked, the proof of a part of the charges is now so well established that the most skeptical do not doubt the fact that money played a large part in breaking the deadlock.

It is a most unfortunate condition when we come to the place in our government career that money or its use names the candidate for office. Evidently members of the general assembly of Illinois accepted money for their votes for William Lorimer for United States senator, and some are confessing. Lorimer may yet have to give up his seat in the senate, either by resignation or expulsion, when the proper proofs of the crime has been submitted to that body, which is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members.

The public is astounded at the proof of graft which has permeated the high places of that state. But the public is to blame. In every state it has come to be the custom for candidates, from the lowest to the highest office, either directly or indirectly to expend large sums in the furtherance of their political aspirations, and generally, if the sum be large enough, the candidate with the "barrel" lands the coveted position.

There should be other qualifications for office than an ability to bring to the campaign which precedes its successful consummation the expenditure of a roll. Those who vote directly for candidates for office or for those who, like members of the general assembly, but express the will of their constituents, should look askance on the candidate who goes out and by his methods makes it clear that he is a buy-partisan candidate.

HAVENS IN NO DANGER.

The opponents of James S. Havens, who overturned Boss Aldridge in the Rochester, N. Y., congressional district last month, have seized upon the neglect of Mr. Havens to file a statement of his election expenses in the time required by the New York state law as a ray of hope as a means for them to prevent Mr. Havens taking his seat. Mr. Havens says that he understood the time allowed for the filing of this statement was twenty days, whereas the law makes it ten days after election.

There is little danger of the Rochester congressman being unseated on this technicality, however, notwithstanding that the state law enacts that a candidate failing to file the statement within the prescribed time shall lose the office. Mr. Havens holds an office created by the constitution of the United States, and that instrument provides that members of the house of representatives "shall be chosen by the people of the several states." and, further, that "each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members." It is hardly possible that under such provisions a state law can, as a penalty for omission, disqualify a member of congress whose election by the people is undisputed and who has taken his seat.

And were it possible to unseat Mr Havens on this technicality there is no reason to doubt that, submitting his candidacy again to the people of the Rochester district, he would be returned by a majority increased even beyond the remarkable figures of his former triumph, the people thus reiterating their repudiation of the party of broken promises and emphasizing their disapproval of a resort to technicalities to overthrow the will of the voters as expressed at the polls.

JOIN "BLUE LAW" RANKS

Former Saloonkeepers Will Aid Webb City, Mo., Crusade.

Webb City, Mo., May 17.—Closely following the failure Sunday of the officials to accede to the demands of the Citizens' alliance, which proposed to enforce the blue laws, a meeting of the organization was held yesterday to devise means whereby the regulations may be enforced next Sunday.

It is proposed to stop the sale of cigars, tobacco, soda water and every necessary of life.

Angered at the enforcement of an ordinance requiring them to close on Sunday, the proprietors of several pool halls have joined the ranks of the blue law advocates which also have been recruited by saloon keepers who are out of business in consequence of the prohibitory law.

HADLEY FOR A NEW REFORMATORY

Legislature Will Be Asked to Appropriate Funds for New Institution—Supt. McClaughry In Favor of the Plan.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 16.—Gov. Hadley said Sunday that he will recommend to the next legislature the enactment of a law creating an intermediate reformatory in Missouri for first offenders and the appropriation of sufficient money to erect the necessary buildings.

This institution, the governor says, is badly needed. He estimates that there are fully 500 young men who are serving their first term in the Missouri penitentiary who may yet be molded into good citizens if placed under different environments.

The governor spent Friday and Saturday at Boonville conferring with Supt C. C. McClaughry, of the training school for boys, who is regarded as one of the most experienced men in prison matters in the United States. McClaughry says the state should have such a reformatory, where young men in trouble for the first time may not be thrown among old and hardened criminals in the penitentiary.

Gov. Hadley says the reformatory should be equipped in such a way that every inmate may be taught some useful trade and given the elements of an education at least.

Supt. McClaughry told the governor that there is ample room on the training school lands at Boonville for the proposed itermediate reformatory. The state has 500 acres there, and part of this, McClaughry said, could be utilized for the new institution. The work of construction, he told the governor, could be done by the boys of the training school under proper supervison. He was of the opinion that $60,000 would be sufficient to erect the first buildings.

Under the present law only boys under 18 years of age can be sent to the training school. All over that age must go to the penitentiary, where they are herded in with criminals of all classes. This is a condition which the governor says should not obtain, and he will strongly recommend the proposed reformatory to the next legislature.

UNLOADING SALE FOR MEN

Messerly's Give Men and Boys a "Whirl" at Their Big Store.

Messerly's opened what is termed an "unloading sale" this morning at 8 o'clock. It is a sale devoted exclusively to men's and boys' clothing, suits, odd pants and furnishing goods. Lucky buying makes possible this sale. Overstock of spring clothing and an additional purchase of a bankrupt stock from an eastern manufacturer at Mr. Messerly's own price brought the merchandise to Sedalia, which was all placed on sale, beginning today.

Judge Messerly in speaking of his purchases said he believed no man who appreciated values could afford to pass the "Unloading Sale" by unnoticed, as he never in his business experience offered such good merchandise for so little money.

A NEW GROCERY HOUSE

Wholesale Business Is to Be Done at Warsaw.

James H. Savage, president and manager of the Savage Grocery Co., is in St. Louis completing the buying preparatory to the opening of a wholesale grocery house in this city, says the Warsaw Times.

The company has been incorporated and will be doing business in a short time. The large brick building owned by Dr. Savage, near the depot, and especially adapted for this kind of business, is being fitted up, and will give the concern commodious quarters.

The officers of the company are:
J. H. Savage, president.
Henry P. Ley, vice president.
W. H. Gallaher, secretary.

Warsaw is well situated for a large grocery house, having an immense territory. There are probably seventy-five merchants in towns south of here who get their merchandise from this city, and with a wholesale house here their freight rates will be materially lessened.

"KETCH" PICKS EASY ONE

For Two Rounds at Long Range and Then "Curtain."

Boston, May 18.—Stanley Ketchel, the middleweight champion, made short work of James (Porky) Flynn, the Boston light heavyweight, at the Armory Athletic association last night, knocking him out in the third round of a bout that was scheduled for twelve rounds.

Flynn made such a poor showing that everyone wondered why he was sent up against fighters of Ketchel's known ability.

Ketchel was so sure of stowing his opponent away that he bet $1,000 to $800 that Flynn would not last eight rounds, and he found several takers, who are now figuring out why they did it.

While Flynn lay on the mat and the referee stood over him, tolling off the count, one of the latter's seconds threw some water on the prostrate boxer, and Ketchel rushing over to the local man's corner, made a vicious kick at the second, but it did not land.

HEAD NEGRO PARADE

Dallas Patrolmen Are Suspended for Insubordination.

Dallas, Texas, May 18.—Chief of Police Ryan yesterday indefinitely suspended Mounted Patrolmen Tedford and Burges because Monday they refused to obey the order of Police Captain Arnold to lead a procession of negroes in carriages, a feature of the opening of the championship season of the Texas Negro league baseball club.

Chief Ryan has preferred charges of insubordination against Tedford and Burgess. The two patrolmen are to be tried before the board of municipal commissioners.

Every patrolman on the force sides with the two officers, and much feeling exists on the part of the public, which seems to be overwhelmingly with the accused officers. Tedford was formerly a state ranger.

CLOSE OF THE "BAZAAR"

Some of the Prizes That Were Awarded Friday Night.

(From Sunday's Daily)

The week's bazaar at Sacred Heart hall closed Friday night with a crowded house, all pronouncing it one of the most delightful affairs of the season.

Miss Irene Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Riley, was the successful contestant in the gold watch contest. Many congratulations were extended to Miss Irene, who is quite a favorite in the younger set. The watch awarded Miss Riley was the gift of Messrs. J. W. Murphy and George Bichsel.

Among other fortunate contestants were Mayor J. W. Mellor, Dr. W. J. Ferguson, Judge D. E. Kennedy, J. J. Wermelskirschen, Timothy Clifford, George Bichsel, Frank Meyer, Mesdames Charles P. Keck, Fred Esser, Misses Emma Keeler, Kathryn Corbett and Leonora Lennartz.

Mrs. W. H. Geigel luckily guessed the name, "Georgia," in the doll contest, that name having been conferred in honor of little Miss Georgia Boland, the baby pupil of Sacred Heart school.

The young ladies of the diamond ring contest made many friends for themselves during the week, and they appreciate the favors extended. The contest will come to a close on the evening of commencement exercises of Sacred Heart school, the latter part of May. Results will then be announced from the stage and the ring presented to the fortunate contestant.

A goodly sum was realized from the bazaar, which will be applied to the debt on the new school building.

FREE ICE PROBLEM

IT IS ONE OF THE CHARITIES THAT IS WORRYING CHICAGO PEOPLE.

SMALL ICE BOXES FOR THE POOR

Cases Reported Where, for the Lack of a Cooler, the Frozen Water Was Permitted to Lie on the Kitchen Floor.

Chicago, Ill., May 17.—The free ice charities of Chicago have developed a new need, a means to keep the ice from quickly melting on the kitchen floor. Efforts are being made this year to meet that need and one charitable organization is planning to buy small ice boxes and loan them to families where there is sickness, or which must have ice to keep a baby's milk sweet, but which can not afford to buy either ice or refrigerators.

The present plans provide for a box that will hold twenty-five pounds of ice and three milk bottles. Cases have been reported where mothers have bought 50-pound pieces of ice, but for lack of an ice box the ice has been left on the floor and soon disappears.

"The problem of making ice boxes for the poor," said George M. Shirk, a refrigerator expert, "is to build a box that can be sold very cheap and yet is well insulated, is easy to keep clean and is substantial."

Health Commissioner Evans' greatest concern during the hot months now at hand, is for the babies, and he and the infant welfare committee of the United Charities have their hands full. A health department bulletin said:

"With the advent of the hot weather comes the serious problem to many families of how to properly preserve the baby's milk. Clean milk requires not only cold to preserve it, but very few poor families possess a refriegrator. The cost of an ordinary ice box and the expense of icing is really too great for many families."

One of Chicago's most indefatigable charity workers, Mrs' Herman Falkenstein, said:

"Crowd a whole family into two or three rooms and a couple of boarders or more and a sick and ailing baby and then mix the whole up with a heavy dose of Chicago summer weather, what happens? How long does twenty pounds last? Not very long, does it? Then, how do you expect ice to keep a baby's milk sweet during the hot summer days and nights in the stifling tenements? It is no exaggeration to say that the Ghetto buries a city-full of babies every summer."

RED MEN HUSTLING

THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS WAS HELD LATE THIS AFTERNOON.

NEXT MEETING PLACE NOT NAMED

It Will Be Chosen Late Today—May Wind Up the Business of the Fifty-First Council This Evening.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Refreshed by an hour's automobile ride over the city from 5 to 6 o'clock last afternoon, followed by a delightful banquet at the Eagles' hall last night, the fifty-first great council meeting of the Improved Order of Red Men began the second day's session at the court house at 9 o'clock this morning. Great Sachem Will DeBold is presiding, and the sessions until adjournment, which will probably be tonight, are secret.

Twenty-five additional delegates over the 250 present at the opening session took their seats in the convention today.

Resolutions were adopted thanking the city, Wichta and Apache tribes of Red Men for the hospitality of the three bodies, also resolutions expressing sorrow on the death of sixty members of the order since the last great council meeting.

The resolutions follow:

Whereas, the members of this great council are now enjoying the hospitality of the officials and citizens of Sedalia and Apache and Wichita tribes; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the representatives to this, the fifty-first great council session, extend to the mayor, officials and citizens of Sedalia and to Apache and Wichita tribes our heartiest thanks and appreciation for their welcome and hospitality, and especially to the business men of this city for their kindness in tendering their automobiles for our use in seeing the city; be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the records of the great council, and be published in the newspapers of the city.

(Signed)
JOSEPH S. FLAX, St. Louis,
F. P. AGNEW, Springfield,
ADOLPH SCHAEFFER, Oran,
Committee.

The following resolutions were also adopted:

Your committee appointed to draft appropriate resolutions of respect on the deaths of sixty chiefs who were called to the Celestial Hunting Grounds during the past great sun, submit the following:

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Spirit in His inscrutable wisdom to call away from the terrestrial hunting grounds our beloved brothers, we deem it befitting for this great council to pay a tribute of regard to their memories; therefore, be it

Resolved, That by the deaths of our beloved brothers the order has lost co-laborers who were faithful in the fulfillment of their duties as members of the tribes; we mourn the loss of these chiefs and their services and loyalty should not be forgotten.

Resolved, That we herewith express sympathy and condolence to the families of the deceased and that a page be set apart to their memory; peace to the ashes of these brave Red Men and honor, everlasting honor, to their memory.

Fraternally submitted in F. F. and C.

C. F. SCHALAPPRIZZI,
GEO. S. LUZZADDER,
EMIL COTTA,
Committee.

After the adoption of the resolutions, reports were heard from the by-laws committee and the committee appointed on the erection of a Red Men home. The latter report showed that $1200 had been subscribed for the undertaking and progress is being made in every detail.

After the transaction of a few minor matters, strictly of a private nature, the convention adjourned for the noon recess.

Immediately after the opening of the afternoon session at 1 o'clock, a telegram came from Festus, Mo., to Delegate J. Scott Wolf, of that place, pledging $500 for the entertainment of the fifty-second great council next year, with further instruction for Wolf to remain in Sedalia unless he landed the convention.

A second telegram came from Lexington to Delegate Thomas Walton, pledging the endorsement of the Lexington business men in nominating Lexington for the next great council meeting.

The following officers were elected:

Great Sachem—Charles Green, of Springfield.

Great Senior Sagamore—Adolph Popper, of Versailles.

Great Junior Sagamore—A. J. Connelly, of Richmond.

Great Prophet—Will DeBold, of Sedalia.

Great Chief of Records—W. P. Lightholder, of St. Louis.

Great Keeper of Wampum—Adolph Schaeffer, of Oran.

Joseph Flax, of St. Louis, was appointed a member of the finance committee, filling the unexpired term of A. J. Connelly, resigned.

Clemons Honkomp, sr., of Sedalia, was elected a member of the finance committee to fill the unexpired term of W. P. Lightholder.

Great Sachem Green will name his appointive officers at a later date.

As the Democrat-Sentinel goes to press the convention is selecting by vote the place for the fifty-second annual great council meeting. Of the seven towns after the convention, Festus and Caruthersville seem to be in the lead, with Festus having the strongest vote.

The convention will adjourn immediately after the election of delegates to the great council meeting of the United States, to be held at Detroit. H. H. Edwards and Will DeBold, both of this city, seem to be the prospective men for the place.

A BAR ON PLUMES

THE NEW LAW IN THE EMPIRE STATE SAVES THE NATIVE BIRDS.

AIGRETTE BUCHERY IS CHARGED

Hat Fashions May Change to Fruit and Flowers—Milliners in the East Now Trying to Dispose of Their Plumes.

New York, May 18.—That fashion will soon cease to prescribe the nuptial plumes of butchered mother birds for the headgear of American women was indicated here today, as the result of the passage of the Audubon bill that Governor Hughes has just made a law.

Not only aigrettes, but also the plumage of native wild birds that check crop pests all over the continent, it is predicted, will be made unfashionable by the leaders in the millinery centers of this city, whose traffic in such stock will be prohibited by the new law.

While the cruel extermination of the arigrette bearing herons will be stopped, millions of dollars' worth of the country's crops will be saved by this legislation, it is declared by officers of the National Association of Audubon societies, who have labored for the last five years to secure its passage.

Realizing that all trade in aigrettes must end when the Audubon law becomes effective, the Broadway feather dealers are reported today to be frantically trying to dispose of their supplies of the plumes for which the white herons are slaughtered among their young. The costly products of this bird butchery are now said to be becoming a drug on the market, where once they commanded fancy prices. Under the circumstances it is believed that the milliners will urge Paris to altar their styles and check further demand for these barbarous trophies on women's hats in this country.

UP TO PARK BOARD

WHETHER OR NOT SEDALIA WILL HAVE BASEBALL GAMES THIS YEAR.

PRICE OF GROUNDS THE TROUBLE

Board Wants All Receipts From the Grand Stand, While the "Cubs" Offer $5 and $10 a Day—Meeting Being Held.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Shall Sedalia have baseball games during the season of 1910?

That is the question that has been agitating local lovers of the great American game for some time and has not as yet been answered.

Early in the season the Sedalia Cubs, an amateur team that did some good work last year and furnished the only out-door amusement Sedalia had, was reorganized, and under the management of Lawrence Laupheimer was placed on a solid and business-like basis; good semi-professional players were secured and every preparation made to put up a good article of baseball during the coming summer months. Correspondence was opened with outside clubs of good reputation and many games were thus scheduled.

At that time it was the impression that the Liberty park grounds could be secured at a price that would permit the club to come out even, at least, and it was the impression among those interested that they had a contract with the park board to that effect—$5 for week day and $10 for Sunday games.

Within the last few days the board, however, has notified the club that it will not let them have the grounds at that price, and are asking all the grand stand receipts as compensation for use of the grounds.

This would make it manifestly impossible for the club to play, and consequently efforts are now being made to persuade the board to change its decision and accept the prices first proposed as compensation.

To this end a meeting of citizens was held at the rooms of the Business Men's association this morning, at which Mayor J.W. Mellor was present, and after a few short talks by various men present it was resolved to take prompt action in the premises. A committee of five, consisting of Judge D. E. Kennedy, W. G. Lynch, S. M. Hodges, Lawrence Laupheimer and G. H. Scruton, was appointed to outline the steps necessary.

This committee met following adjournment of the general meeting and petitions were prepared, addressed to the park board, asking that the club be given the use of the grounds at the $5 and $10 rate. The petitions were circulated at once and met a ready response, merchants, professional men and citizens generally gladly affixing their signatures.

At the same time an invitation was extended to the board, requesting its members to attend a citizens' meeting this afternoon at the Business Men's association rooms, and as the Democrat-Sentinel goes to press this meeting is being held, with good prospects of reaching a satisfactory conclusion.

Dripping Springs, Mo., May 18.— The use of the hand card and the spinning wheel, arts learned in her youth, has not been abandoned by Mrs. Mary J. Mrs. Stone is an expert at using the spinning wheel and the old-fashioned wool card, and the blankets will not suffer by comparison with the finest quality of goods produced by modern machine methods.

FIGHT THE "DRYS"

REV. WILLIAM A. WASSON, EPISCOPAL RECTOR, HAS RESIGNED CHARGE.

WAS LOCATED AT RIVERHEAD, L.I.

Retiring Divine Will Devote All of His Time to Fighting Prohibition—Healthy Wallop Handed Out to Public.

New York, May 18.—Rev. William A. Wasson has resigned from his Episcipal pastorate at Riverhead, L. I., to work for limited license as against total prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors.

In a letter to the Right Rev. Frederick Burgess, D. D., bishop of Long Island, Dr. Wasson says he wishes to give his whole time to "fighting temperance falsely so-called, and advocating the true temperance, which means moderation and self-control.

"A copy of the official organ of the national prohibition party is before me," he continues, "containing an editorial, the gist of which is that if Jesus did drink wine he was ignorant of the fact that he was setting a bad example to all future generations.

"Jesus Christ must sit at the feet of these blasphemers to take lessons in good morals."

DEPUTY HAS RESIGNED

Ben Shoemaker No Longer Trains With the Constabulary.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Ben Shoemaker, a negro, who some months ago formed an alliance with L. H. Kahrs, since which time he has hailed to the appelation of a deputy constable, quit work last night, never again to hide behind a gun or star or to endeavor to keep the peace within the borders of the township.

Ben's sudden resignation was brought about by a melee with Harry Buckner, a desperate negro, last week, when the latter, handcuffed, knocked the officer down and then made his escape.

Ben claims he was one of three officers in whose custody Buckner was when he escaped. Instead of that, the "Four Court" magistrates, clerks and court attaches furnished the local press with an erroneous statement regarding the hair-raising escape, which humiliated Ben's pride, calling for his resignation.

FRANK WILLBARGER DEAD

A Former Employe of the Sedalia Traction Company.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

W. M. Pope today received a letter from St. Louis advising him of the death of his brother-in-law, Frank Willbarger, a former electrician with the Sedalia Light and Traction Co., at the home of his daughter in St. Louis Monday. The funeral was held there Tuesday.

Mr. Willbarger was 63 years of age and death resulted from kidney disease.

He was a resident of Sedalia for a number of years, and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him.

He resigned his position here a couple of years ago to remove to Indiana, but was at the home of his daughter in St. Louis when the end came.

The Missouri Pacific pipe fitters have been granted an advance of 2½ cents an hour, but other shopmen in the company's employ have presented demands for more pay.

CAR KILLED A $200 DOG

And That Is Why George Arnold Is in Mourning.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

George Arnold, of the Arnold stock farm, west of town, lost a valuable bird dog, "Doc," this morning, in consequence of which gloom is cast over "Wall street," and particularly that section occupied by the Harris Tailoring emporium.

The dog was valued at $200, the owner having flatly refused that price several times. As was customary, the canine was chained day and night, but this morning the owner consented to let a young man take the dog on a trip to East Sedalia.

In the vicinity of Thirteenth street and Ohio avenue, one of "Bob" Hamner's street cars came in contact with "Doc's" anatomy, killing him almost instantly.

Letter to Mr. Peter Pehl, Sedalia, Mo.

Dear Sir: If you paint two houses alike with two different paints, and one takes twice as much paint as the other, you know which paint to buy after that—so far as go-far goes—don't you?

One of the paints is Devoe; the other is any average paint. The worst are worse than that; the better are not much better; no other paint than Devoe is anywhere near Devoe in go-far. Devoe is go further; the rest are go-short, go-middling and go three-quarters.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.,

'TWAS SENIOR DAY

INTERESTING EXERCISES AT THE HIGH SCHOOL DURING THE FORENOON.

REV. M'CLANAHAN'S ADDRESS

If the Students Will Follow the Advice Given Success in Life Is Certain—The Program That Was Given.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Senior day was observed at the Sedalia High school this morning when the last assembly meeting of the 1909-10 school year took place, it being conducted by Miss Martha Letts, the principal.

The exercises opened with the hymn, "Break Thou the Bread of Life," by the school, at the conclusion of which prayer was offered by the Rev. W. A. McClanahan, of the Fifth Street Methodist church, South, after which the song, "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me," was sung.

Next on the program was a musical number, "The High School March," composed by Prof. Gregg and played by his orchestra.

Rev. McClanahan then spoke to the assembly, but chiefly to the seniors, saying, among other things, how pleased he was to know that nearly 100 students had the grit and stick-toitiveness to pull through the four years of school; that now was the all-important time, which many in after years would wish was back again—the starting point in life, and that success or failure lay in their own hands.

He said, further, that to the one who went through school on his own resources the laborious tasks of life will be conquered and overcome; and that while the diplomas were valuable to the student facing the world, he would be benefited far more if he possesses that which so many men in our day lack—good muscle and common horse sense.

He concluded his interesting and instructive address by congratulating the class upon their splendid achievements and upon the honor and credit they brought upon their families.

His address was followed by a musical number by the orchestra entitled, "Lenore," by Gavott. Next was a violin solo, with an encore, by John Heisterberg, while the concluding musical number, "Starlight Night," was given by the orchestra.

Miss Letts then in a brief talk reiterated the statements made by Rev McClanahan, after which she made the announcements, viz: That there would be students' tickets for the concert to be given by the Musical club; that every Wednesday evening throughout the summer the High school boys would indulge in basket ball practice at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, and, lastly, of the baseball game between the Sedalia and California High schools at Liberty park next Saturday afternoon.

Besides the faculty and student body of the school, a goodly number were in attendance, most of whom were friends of the senior class.

AN ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

Train Dispatcher at Walch's Cafe Last Afternoon.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

M. C. Wilkins, a train dispatcher from Pryor Creek, Ok., who came to Sedalia Tuesday, on his way to Jefferson City to work for the Missouri Pacific railway, attempted suicide in a room at Walch's cafe, on Second street, late last afternoon, but failed.

He slashed his throat with a razor five times, only one of the gashes cutting the skin. Dr. W. J. Wills was summoned and dressed the wounds.

Wilkins father, J. D. Wilkins, was notified by telegraph, and arrived here on the first train, departing for home early this morning with his son.

Wilkins, according to the authorities, was drinking. He had an hallucination that someone was going to murder him, and while in that condition attempted to take his life. Wilkins is a member of the A. F. and A. M. and members of that order interested themselves in his welfare.

BOX OF LEMONS STOLEN

Was Taken From a Box Car in Missouri Pacific Yards.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

A box of lemons, evidently stolen from a Missouri Pacific merchandise car, was found by the side of the Missouri Pacific track near Engineer avenue by Deputy Constables Renie and Brown at 5 o'clock this morning.

The box had been broken open, but few if any of the lemons had been taken. It was turned over to Freight Agent Kaho to investigate its disappearance.

Two men, both white, were seen last night in the neighborhood of where the box was found, but the description of them is meagre, and it is very doubtful if they will be apprehended.

BODY OF THE KING

WAS REMOVED FROM BUCKINGHAM PALACE TO WESTMINSTER HALL TODAY.

ALL ENGLAND IS IN MOURNING

The People Reverently Raised Their Hats to the Mother Queen, Who Bowed Head in Recognition of Sympathy.

London, May 17.—The body of King Edward was removed today from Buckingham Palace to Westminster hall. The procession passed through a double line of red-coated soldiers, flanked with rows of policemen and a mass of silent, black-garbed humanity.

As the gun carriage bearing the casket approached, the order, "Rest on arms," was given sharply. The soldiers kept their eyes on the ground while the body of the late king passed.

The greatest interest of the crowd was aroused at the approach of the first carriage, containing Queen Mother Alexandra, to whom the hearts of Britishers have gone out during the last week.

Her majesty, wearing the deepest mourning, had lifted her veil, and the people reverently raised their hats to the pathetic figure, who, even in her hour of grief, acknowledged the silent testimony of sympathy by bowing repeatedly.

STILL ANOTNER FATALLY SHOT

Firebug Who Applied the Torch in an Effort to Escape Was of the Number Who Lost Lives in Stampede.

Centerville, Ala., May 17.—Thirty-six negro convicts lost their lives yesterday when the stockade of the Red Feather Coal company at Lucille was destroyed by a fire started by one of the prisoners in an effort to gain his freedom.

Thirty-five of the convicts were burned to death and another was fatally shot by guards while trying to escape.

Among the former is the negro who started the blaze.

It was with much difficulty that the remaining convicts in the stockade were prevented from eluding the guards.

The financial loss will reach several thousand dollars.

"CYANIDE" DID IT

THIS WAS THE ONE THING THAT CAUSED CONVICTION OF DR. BENNETT C. HYDE.

NO CONVICTION ON STRYCHNINE

If Defendant Had Used the Poison for Ten Years He Should Have Remembered More Than One Place of Buying It.

Kansas City, Mo., May 17.—Cyanide was the one thing Dr. B. C. Hyde could not explain away and resulted in his conviction of having poisoned Col. Thomas H. Swope. Although there was no direct evidence that the capsule which he ordered give n to Col. Thomas H. Swope Oct. 3, 1909, contained poison, the jury, considering it in connection with the purchases of cyanide capsules, believed Col. Swope was poisoned.

Although Hyde's attorneys will not talk, it is known they were opposed to his going on the stand.

Expert testimony was introduced in plenty, but little of it was considered. The story dragged out of Dr Hyde in one of the bitterest and most uncompromising cross-examinations a defendant has ever undergone was the story on which the jury deliberated and convicted.

Had there been a satisfactory explanation, Dr. Hyde, it is claimed, would no doubt have been acquitted It was his inability to remember, although he said he had used cyanide for ten years, and had purchased it in a number of drug stores in Kansas City, where and of whom he had bought it. On strychnine alone, it is asserted, there would have been no conviction.

This was realized by the prosecuting attorney some time before he began proceedings against Dr. Hyde. An investigation conviced him that a strychnine case could not be made. Then, as if by accident, he stumbled onto the cyanide clew and the chain of circumstantial evidence was complete. It was the purchase of this drug, made in a way that was kept on the books of a drug store, that spelled the word "guilty" in the jurors' minds.

COST OF FUNERALS

THE WAR BEGUN IN CHICAGO ON EXTORTION TO BE MADE NATION WIDE.

NOT EVERY MAN AFFORD TO DIE

National Association of Charities and Corrections Will Consider the Matter at a Meeting in City of St. Louis.

Chicago, May 17.—The war on funeral extortions begun in Chicago will be made nation-wide during the conference in St. Louis of the National Association of Charities and Corrections, to which the revelations of the Chicago inquiry will be transmitted. Ministerial associations also will take a hand. Bishop Samuel Fellows and Judge C. S. Cutting, of the probate court, have approved the movement, also fifteen social settlements.

"I would be in favor," said Bishop Fallows, "of burying our dead in a simple wicker basket. The idea of burial is to return the mortal remains to the dust from which they sprang. Do not the Scripures say, 'For dust thou art and unto dust shalt thou return'?

"When a heavy, elaborate casket is provided this Scriptural command is disobeyed. All the elaborateness of burials, with the attendant customs, such as embalming, are but relics of ancient Egyptian customs and were originally intended to preserve the mortal remains until the day of resurrection. That idea of course has long since been proved fallacious and it is to be regretted that the Scriptures are not more closely followed in our burial customs.

"When I die I do not want a casket used. What I desire is to be interred in a plain board coffin, and the thinner the material the better. Of course, a great deal of the funeral expense that is assumed nowadays is folly, and I hope to see the day when a more sensible view of burial will be taken."

THE SEISMOGRAPH

IT WAS RECENTLY INSTALLED IN KANSAS UNIVERSITY AT LAWRENCE.

PROF. H. P. CADY IS IN CHARGE

So Sensitive Is the Machine That It Can Detect Not Only Earthquakes, but When Students Go to Their Classes.

Lawrence, Kas., May 16—A seismograph has been installed at the University of Kansas and is in charge of Prof. H. P. Cady.

So sensitive is the seismograph that it can detect not only the most distant and faintest earthquakes, but even the time that the students go to class. All students are expected to be in their class rooms by 8 o'clock in the morning, but the record of the seismograph shows the majority of them are one or two minutes late. The dismissal hours, as well as chapel time, also are accurately recorded. The instrument even detects the light footed registrar whenever he brings some noted visitor to see the quake machine. But this is not to be wondered at when it is stated that an electric bulb left burning for two or three minutes within several feet of the instrument will cause a variation in the records.

In setting up this very delicate piece of German mechanism in the weights and measures room in the basement of Fraser hall all possible care was exercised. It is built on a solid brick and cement foundation running several feet into the earth and is free from all contact with the building.

At first glance the seismograph appears little more than a tripod. At the top of one of the legs there is a small affair that resembles a miniature water supply tank. Then there is a cylindrical appearing body that carries a wide strip of blackened paper. This cylinder is in fact a mass of of iron, weighing several hundred pounds, which is delicately balanced by means of steel hangers and springs.

Whenever a quake comes this pendulum, being so accurately balanced, does not move, as might be supposed. The rest of the machine, solid on its base of brick and cement, however, does move, and this movement causes two little needles supported on two truss- like arms, to mark the vibrations.

If the quake is in a north-south direction one needle makes the record, and if the earth's movement is in an east-west direction the other needle takes the vibrations.

Under normal conditions both needles make a perfectly straight line on the smoked paper. A slight quake will cause a waviness in the line, while a more serious shock will produce a jagged line.

By an ingenious arrangement each minute of the day is marked off so that the exact length of an earthquake may be told at a glance.

But that is not all. If the quake is of any importance whatever the distance can be more or less accurately determined. The records are made upon smoked paper, which, after being filled, are run through a chemical preparation, which sets the lamp black so that they can be handled.

Since the installment of the seismograph, two months ago, four earthquakes have been detected by the university machine. The last one was on May 13. A shock was recorded at 1:39 o'clock in the morning on that date. The tremors lasted nearly three hours and at times were severe.

Prof. Cady gave it as his opinion that the center of the quake was at some point between 2,000 and 3,000 miles from Lawrence. Subsequent developmens showed that this record was of quakes in Costa Rica, which have recurred frequently since the recent disaster in that country.

GIRL WAS 18 YEARS OLD

Stepfather Declared That She Was Hypnotized.

New York, May 16.—When Harold Leroy Decker, 20, son of a Chicago broker, was arraigned before Magistrate Dooley on the charge of abducting Miss Anna McKnight, a pretty 18-year-old girl, her stepfather asserted his belief that the girl had been hypnotized. Young Decker is said to be heir to an $8,000 estate left him by his grandfather.

Charles E. Kelsey, counsel for Decker, moved an immediate hearing, saying his client loved Miss McKnight and wished to marry her.

Three weeks ago Decker was standing in the doorway of a Brooklyn hotel, when Miss McKnight stepped in out of the rain. It was a case of love at first sight, the couple said. She is a pretty blonde, and when in court was stylishly dressed.

When Decker was arraigned his lawyer, Harry Lewis, made the point that the young woman was 18 years old last October and therefore had a right to do as she pleased. The lawyer said that Decker wanted to marry the girl. The magistrate discharged the prisoner.

CLARK MAY BE SPEAKER

Think Opposition Neither Important Nor Serious.

Washington, May 16.—Representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, one of the leading democrats of the house, does not regard the opposition to Champ Clark for the speakership as being either important or serious.

He said yesterday that nothing is likely to happen between now and the convening of the next congress which would prevent the election of Mr. Clark as speaker in case the house is democratic, or minority leader in case the house is republican.

"Already," said Mr. Underwood, "considerably more than a majority of the democratic members of the house have personally and voluntarily pledged themselves to Mr. Clark. Should the democrats gain fifty members in the next house, that being what we expect to do, it is fair to presume that Mr. Clark would have an even break and that he would get the votes of at least half of these. And there you are. How can he be defeated?"

Mr. Underwood's views are shared by practically all of the democrats, most of whom are inclined to smile whenever the subject is suggested.

'WRITTEN AT SEA'

AN INTERESTING LETTER RECEIVED FROM MRS. WILLIAM D. STEELE.

DESCRIPTIVE OF HER TRAVELS

Missive Was Penned While Aboard a Vessel Between Singapore and Rangoon—Was Mailed at Borneo.

Mrs. W. D. Steele, president of the Ladies' Musical club, who is making a tour of the world in company with her husband. Hon. W. D. Steele, and son, William, jr., has written the following letter to a Sedalia lady, to whom the Democrat Sentinel is indebted for permission to reprint it, as follows:

On the Sea, Between Singapore and Ragoon.—I mailed you a big, fat, long letter from Singapore and some post cards. but I told you nothing after we left Borneo. Yes, I think I told you of the coming of "Neptune" on Easter Sunday, the day after we had reached the equator.

On Monday we dropped anchor in the harbor of Java, the most beautiful island in the world. It has been called by all sorts of names—"The Beauty Spot of the World," The Second Garden of Eden," "The Pearl of the Orient," yet all these names fail to give one an idea of its loveliness.

We went on shore by 10 o'clock and took the railroad from the City of the Pines to Batavia. The road runs through miles of purely tropical scenery; palms of every description, fruits that we never saw or dreamed of before, growing before our very eyes; banana, the only friend; many trees laden with cocoanuts. dates, etc.; the undergrowth dense and luxurient.

The cottages of the natives are built on Bamboo poles up from the ground, made of beautiful wover mattings, with roofs of tile and some thatched; the people, mostly Malays, wearing scarcely any clothes and mostly hatless, but those that did wear a head covering wore the little round conical ones, which were very picturesque. All seemed content and happy and seemed to do much more work than the natives of Manila.

These Malays are goverened by the Dutch, and the island is nine times the size of the mother government—Holland. The Dutch govern them and the people do the work; the result is that order and neatness reign supreme.

There are fine roads through the island; a great system of canals and drainage; vast rice fields—and the way rice is planted here is new to us. Instead of trenches running around each little field, there are walls of dirt a foot high around every field, and these are terraced up and flooded at the proper time. We had seen barley in terraces. but never rice. We enjoyed the ride through the country, for it gave us glimpses of the people that we would not otherwise have had.

They are a larger race than any we had seen as yet; they have beautiful brown hair, perfectly straight, fine teeth, bright eyes. They carry their loads on their heads. The sedan chair we did not see; but in the city we saw and rode, to our great dis comfort, in the dosados, or native carriage. It is a two wheeled affair, the driver sitting in front and you and one other in the back, with your back against his. and you hold on to the side by a fender as best you can.

This carriage is drawn by a stately little pony. jingling in silver-plated harness. From the moment you get into the rig the driver begins to ask for his tip, by signs, saying he is hungry. If you give him the tip he will stop at the first place he can get something to eat and chat with friends for half an hour, while you sit in the cart and "fume."

The city of Batavia is beautiful, tropical and green; long, wide streets, beautifully paved and drained; bridges over the little canals and rivers. All the stone and building materials are of white; the houses colonial in style, and most of the dwellings one story, built high. with pillars in front of the broad porches. There are hedges of mybiscus, in full bloom, and the wide streets are shaded by high trees of every description.

In the rivers we saw the people doing their washing and laying it on the banks to dry. In the same stream the common people were bathing, and so were their horses. The canal boats were dragged by men, who trotted along as cheerfully as could be. There were no beggars. They say we will find enough of them in India.

The Botanical garden in Batavia has a grand pavilion, at which 750 people sat down for their meals at one time. This was all very attractive, but we went on to Buitenzorg. which means "Peaceful Valley," to the greatest botanical garden in the world. Here one sees every kind of tree, not only in samples or specimens, but in groves, and every kind of tropical fruit and flowers brought to their highest development. This garden is the pride of the Dutch government, and it spares no money in its support. It has the greatest experts in every line cultivating each kind of fruit, etc. We saw wonderful orchids growing tied to trees; ferns. from the tiniest to huge trees; the famous Banyan tree, which drops its roots from its limbs to the ground and re-roots. making a forest in itself.

There were acres of trees, large droves of deer; bridges spanned the streams; great palms, with tree vines which enveloped them from head to foot; lily ponds, where all manner of huge, water lilies and gorgeous leaves floated; whole acres devoted to the culture of coffee, cloves, spices. nutmegs, black pepper. One could spend weeks in the lovely spot, and to miss it would be to miss Java. We returned from Batavia by train in time for 7 p. m. dinner.

The Dutch all wear white and look clean and well gowned, regardless of the intense heat. I am standing the heat very well so far, and so are Mr. Steele and William. We all wear white, as everybody else does on the boat. John Chinaman is everywhere in evidence in Java. We like the Javanese; they are a kindly people. and with the Dutch to direct them they certainly have "The Beauty Spot of the Earth."

We passed some lovely islands coming north and we recrossed the equator. But Neptune did not show up again. Saw lots of flying fish and sharks. Our next stop was at Singapore, which was lovely and interesting, too.

Singapore was a great surprise to us. We had expected a purely commercial city, where the "ends of the earth meet." We found not only this, but one of the most beautiful cities in the world. We landed and were off sight seeing in our rikashaws by 8 a. m., which is always an advantage in the tropics, for the early hours are the ones when one sees the most sights and hasn't the torrid midday heat to endure.

The people here arise early and go to bed at 11 a. m.; remain until 3 p. m., and then bathe and dress until 7 o'clock dinner and then enjoy the rest of the cool evening.

When we first landed at the pier we went in a carriage to the botanical gardens. These gardens are not as extensive as the ones at Buitenzorg, in Java, but stand unsurpassed for loveliness in landscaping. There are pagodas covered with vines under waving palms. in which grow all the orchids ever dreamed of, and also many devoted to ferns. Monkeys play in the trees, and maybe you don't think this suited William. He manages to make friends with all the guides, no matter what language they speak, and by the universal language of signs they talk, and he learns a lot from every one.

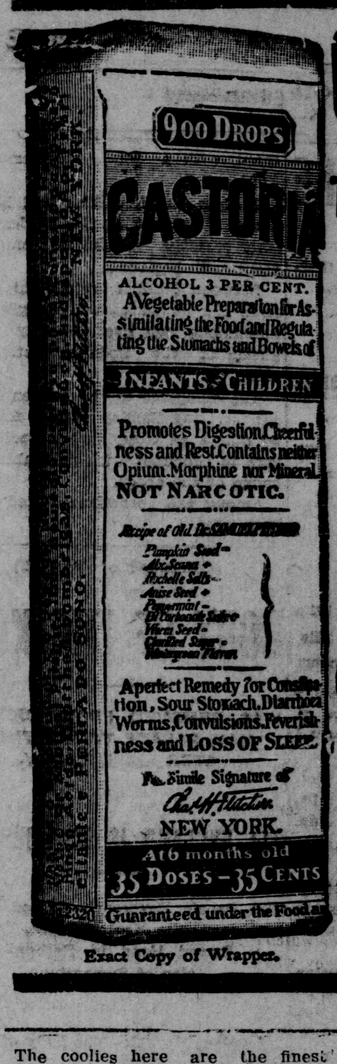

These Singapore gardens are beautiful, but the whole city is a garden. The governor's palace stands on the top of a hill, and here is another fine speciment of landscape gardening. The British soldier is everywhere in Singapore, but the dikko (policeman) which his majesty uses in every province in the east, is the grandest and most important person you see.

Singapore has many nationalities represented upon its streets— more than any other city in the world. The great ships from the east and the west. from Indian to Australia, all stop at this port, and they say as many as 140 foreign ships anchor here every day. You meet East Indians, Ceylonese, Cingalese, Servians. Chinese, Javanese, Japanese, Malays, Europeans. every race, but there are only fifty Americans living here.

Of course, as the English own it there are many more Englishmen, but the population is mostly easterners, controlled by the English brain and pocketbook.

Wherever I see English rule I am proud of being an Anglo-Saxon. The public buildings in Singapore are fine and solid looking. The government offices are substantial and in the open squares are statues of English royalty and local heroes. The name "Raffles" appears often. He was a pioneer. Raffles hotel, where we took our fine lunch, was named after him. As we drove through the broad streets we were surprised by the splendid homes and the way these people prepare for hot weather. The houses in the dwelling portion are fine and large and mostly of great windows, with sashes that could be slid back and give more air.

There are lovely large fountains, with lawns and driveways through splendidly laid out grounds. Many of these houses are painted bright blue. These are the first blue houses we have seen. We drove up to the waterworks. From the resorvoir we had a splendid view of the city and harbor, but as for the harbor, Hong Kong has the whole world beat. We also saw the famous rubber trees and learned how rubber is made.

The coolies here are the finest looking men of their class in the orient. In Japan the men are all small; in China. a vicious, humble, bent looking lot, but these men here seem fine, big straight fellows, who look strong enough to lift a ton. Their means of carrying goods is by cart with two wheels and drawn by two sacred bulls. They are lovely white animals and of the same splendid mold as the coolies.

We saw the Lascars, who are as black as ebony, with scarcely a stitch on them, carrying huge loads on their heads. They were perfect pictures. I got some snaps of them. They use a one-horse omnibus, which seats four uncomfortably, but their best conveyace is the Victoria, when you can get one. The Chinese quarters were clean. with unusually broad streets. We saw these industrious people washing and hanging out their clothes to dry in their own unique way.

The most miserable washing I ever saw done in my life is done in the east, in Japa and China. We hate to soil anything white because it is so hard to have anything done up well. But to return to Singapore. We visited the local museum. There were ancient war relics, swords, armors, shields, ancient weapons of warriors, with their feathers and bows; the instruments of music used by the barbaric people of the islands; jewelry, old and new; stuffed monkeys, and specimens of every kind of animal, bird. fish, snake or living creature, perfectly preserved; whole leopards and tigers, and William was in his element. It was the most interesting we ever visited.

We then had lunch at Raffles' hotel. It is a splendid place, and there is in connection with it a hundred and fifty rooms for the "exiles" of the earth who wander into Singapore. I will describe these suites to you some other time.

We drove to the station after lunch and found ourselves in a Singapore railroad train, which was very comfortable. We rode through the country for an hour and saw the surrounding places of Singapore. They were after the manner of all those places we had seen during the day—tropical, comfortable, beautiful. We were treated with a tropical shower, which always comes off with schedule regularity at 2 p. m. each day and lasts two hours; then the sun comes out, smiles and dries up everything until the next day.

We crossed the Straits of Johore to visit the palace of his majesty. the sultan. The grounds and surroundings of the palace were lovely and it was an interesting trip. The sultan is a progressive man who is doing much to develop his country. We were delighted with our visit to Singapore. It has 250,000 population, and is one of the great strategic points of the world. England did well to get it.

We mail this at Borneo. You don't know how we enjoyed your two letters at Singapore. Write often. I'll send you my London address in my next, and tell you when to mail letters there. Did not get a letter from Miss Maggie at Singapore. Give her these letters of mine to Maggie to read. She'll know all about what we are seeing.

Good bye, with lots of love to you all. I'll mail another letter from Calcutta. All send love. Yours—Helen G. Steele.

NEW MEN AT WORK

TAKE PLACES OF STRIKING MACHINISTS IN SHOPS AT JEFFERSON CITY.

TWENTY-TWO WERE BROUGHT IN

Are Guarded So as to Prevent Molestation—Will Eat and Sleep in Cars in the Yards Near Their Work.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The limit expires today for the striking Missouri Pacific machinists to return to work in the Sedalia shops. Up to the hour the Democrat-Sentinel went to press there had not been a break in the ranks, and the men say there will not be.

The Democrat-Sentinel is not authorized to say so, but it is understood the company will proceed at once to fill the places of the local strikers with non-union men, the same as was done at Jefferson City Saturday, as will be seen from the following clipping from the Capital News of Sunday morning:

"Twenty-two men known as 'scabs' arrived here Saturday to take the places of the machinists who went out on a strike about two weeks ago. They came from St. Louis on passenger train No. 21 in a special coach.

"Saturday afternoon cars were fitted up in the western part of the yards near the round house in which they are to eat and sleep. They will in this way be less than two hundred yards from their work. J. A. Koch, special agent for the Missouri Pacific, was on the premises yesterday afternoon to see that the men were not molested.

"No trouble is anticipated, as the railroad company has men working in the places of the strikers in Sedalia, Kansas City and St. Louis. At not one of these places has there been a demonstration made by the machinists who demand more wages for their work.

"The men will be put to work at once and will be under heavy guard. It is the belief of the men who walked out here that the strike will not continue very much longer, as they think the railroad company will accede to their demands.

"The men who walked out at Sedalia have received notification that if they do not return to work on or before the 16th day of May they must move their tools and other belongings from the shops. This is a good indication that the railroad company is going to contest the matter to the end.

"W. C. Mann, represenative of the Jefferson City lodge of B. of R. T., and chairman of the local grievance committee, returned from St. Louis last night, where he attended a meeting of the general committee of the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railroad.

"Mr. Mann will return to St. Louis Tuesday to meet with General Manager Sullivan, when it is hoped the grievance of the railroad men with the company will be adjusted.

AMERICAN MONEY

IS SPENT MOST LAVISHLY IN ENGLAND BY LEADERS OF SOCIETY.

ENGLISH SISTERS CAN'T KEEP UP

Because of This Fact Lady Innes-ker Will Hie to the Country for the Summer—What Shall Be Done With Kitchener?

International News Service.

London, May 14.—Although the English hostesses are unaffected by the extravagant entertainments which are being given by the American millionaire hostesses residing in London, and are not trying to eclipse their rivals by finer splendor, it is well known that other Americans not as rich as their leaders are living far beyond their means in order to keep in the swirl of society.

Lady Alestain Innes-ker, in Financial Straits.

Since the Reids inaugurated costly festivities in Anglo-American circles, there have been certain young couples who have had a difficult time trying to make ends meet. This is because of their social duties. They have to entertain, and only extravagant affairs are recognized.

One of the greatest sufferers is Lady Alestair Innes-ker, who has to entertain on a very modest income, compared with her friends, Countess Granard, formerly Miss Beatrice Mills, and Mrs. John Ward, who was Miss Jean Reid, and the result is that she runs heavily in debt every year.

She has been rescued from her deplorable condition by her step-father, Mr. Higgens, several times, but he has rebelled this spring, which makes it probable that Lady Innes-ker and her menage will spend most of the coming season in the country, while her charming town house will be rented to the first rich American desiring a residence in London.

* * *

What to do with Lord Kitchener now that he is here is a question being discussed by nearly everybody in London. It is recognized that he will not stay long in the ornamental position of commander-in-chief of the Mediterranean—the post which was vacated by the Duke of Connaught because it was little better than an empty title.

There are several high appointments being suggested which the field marshal could fill with advantage to the country. That of minister of war, if offered to him, he is certain not to accept, as he would be most unwilling to engage in party politics. The next most important military post, now that the commander-in-chief has become abolished, is chief of the general staff, with a seat on the imperial defense committee. That would be the ideal post for Kitchener, but if he gets it it will be in spite of a powerful intrigue of politicians and reactionaries.

Many people suggest that Lord Kitchener should be sent back to India as governor general, in place of Lord Minto. The post of viceroy of India, of course, is a brilliant one, full of pomp and social power; but as Lord Kitchener dislikes ceremonial glitter and is a bachelor with no social aspirations he is not exactly panting for the honor.

The question remains. What will they do with Kitchener?

CHILDREN HAVE DECREASED

Enumeration Shows Thirty-Two Less Than Last Year.

J. M. Logan, truant officer of the Sedalia public schools, Saturday completed his enumeration of the school children, white and black, and parents in the city of Sedalia.

The enumeration shows there are thirty-two fewer children in Sedalia this year than there were last year, but this deficiency is attributed by Mr. Logan to the fact tha many families with children have moved away from Sedalia, while their places have been filled by husbands and wives with no children.

The list as compiled by Mr. Logan follows:

Male children, white	2,303
Female children, white	2,373
Total White children	4,676
Male negro children	355

BEST SPRING TONIC

Every one should take a tonic in the Spring; our systems require it. The change in the seasons produces a like change in our bodies, and more is required of the blood, from which source we receive physical nourishment and strength, at this particular time than at any other.

Almost every one feels bad in the Spring. Some have no particular sickness, but are debilitated, run-down and weak, and their systems are in a general state of disorder. This deranged condition of the health is due to weak, anaemic blood; the circulation is infected with impurities which have diminished its natural nourishing powers, and the body is suffering from deficient blood nutriment. The refuse and impurities which naturally accumulate in our systems are not properly expelled in Winter, because those members whose duty it is to perform this work of drainage do not receive sufficient stimulation from outdoor exercise, and therefore grow dull and sluggish in their action; nor is the skin as active in eliminating waste maters in cold weather because the pores are not so open as in warm seasons.

These Winter accumulations pollute the blood and largely destroy its nutritive qualities, and when Spring comes, and everything takes on new life, and we change our method of living, the circulation is so weakened that it is unable to supply the increased demands of the system. Then we suffer from weakness, nervousness, loss of appetite, lassitude, etc. There is a constant worn-out feeling, sleep is not refreshing, and we do not feel able to perform the ordinary duties of daily life. This disordered condition demands the use of a tonic, and it should be one which has the additional qualities of a first class blood purifier, for to restore health and strength the blood must be pure.

The healthful botanical ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed, and the method of combining and preparing them so that they build up and strengthen every portion of the body, make it the best of all Spring tonics. S. S. S. is Nature's medicine, free from strong mineral mixtures and made entirely of the healing, cleansing juices and extracts of roots, herbs and barks; a safe and pleasant tonic for persons of any age.

S. S. S. is not only the best Spring tonic, but its ability and worth as a genuine blood purifier is universally recognized. It builds up the depleted system in the true way, by purifying the blood and supplying an increased amount of nourishment to every portion of the body. S. S. S. removes all accumulations from the circulation, enriches and purifies the blood and overcomes the unpleasant physical ailments that always come with Spring. It rids the body of that tired feeling, improves the appetite, reinvigorates every fibre and tissue of the body, and imparts healthful energy to all who are run-down. The body cannot be strong and well if the blood is weak or impure, and no tonic should be used which does not thoroughly cleanse the circulation. If you select S. S. S. as your tonic this Spring you will experience better results and more vigorous health than ever before, because it will make your blood "just right." Insist on getting S. S. S., there is no other "just as good."

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

PRETTY GOOD EVIDENCE.

I have used S. S. S. and found it to be an excellent blood purifier and tonic. My blood was weak and impure, and as a result my system became very much run down and debilitated. I lost twenty or more pounds in weight, had no appetite and was in bad shape. Seeing S. S. S. advertised I began its use, and am well pleased with the results after using it for some little while. From 139 pounds to 165 is pretty good evidence of merit on the part of S. S. S., and as to my appetite, it is superb. My system and general health have been wonderfully built up, and I do not hesitate to give S. S. S. the credit for it.

JEFF WORKS ON SUNDAY

White Man Goes Four Fast Rounds With Bob Armstrong.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 16.—Jeffries delighted a record crowd of camp visitors last afternoon by going four fast rounds with Bob Armstrong. There was to have been more boxing, but Choynski was slightly ill and Armstrong was not keen for an extension of the four-round limit.

Jeffries showed marked hospitality to his guests and seemed in excellent spirits. He did five miles on the road in the morning under a hot sun, and his afternoon show lasted about an hour.

Among the visitors to the camp Sunday were John A. Kelly, acting mayor of San Francisco, and Sheriff Tom Finn and Supervisors John L. Herget and Con Deasy, all of San Francisco, Charles Eyton, the Los Angeles referee, dropped in unexpectedly. He expressed himself as astonished at Jeffries' splendid physical condition.

After completing his work Saturday Jeffries devoted the entire evening to pleasure. He entertained his family and close friends at dinner, and later was one of a large party that went to a dance on the Ben Lomond.

Jeffries took his first drink since starting to train Saturday afternoon. He split a bottle of stout with his business partner, Jack Knipper. The fighter explained that, with a goodly part of the grind still before him, he did not want to grow stale, and that a drink of porter or ale occasionally would be beneficial.

"JOE" LINCOLN RESIGNS

District Manager for Bell Company Going to St. Joe.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Joseph H. Lincoln, district manager for the Missouri and Kansas Telephone company, with headquarters in Sedalia, has resigned and will leave Monday for St. Joseph, Mo., to accept the position of district superintendent for the same company.

The change in positions materially betters Mr. Lincolns circumstances, as one of the inducements is a noticeable increase in salary.

Mr. Lincoln is a practical telephone man and has been connected with the Bell in this city for almost fifteen years past. He knows the business from A to Z, and his leaving this city to locate elsewhere permanently will be sincerely regretted by every acquaintance.

No successor for the district managership has as yet been announced.

Tuesday night a sumptuous banquet will be served the delegates at the Eagles' hall, the affair being only for Redmen.

Members of the arrangements committee of the Redmen request that all business houses in town bedeck their places of business with bunting, national flags and other decorations to show welcome to the out-of-town Redmen.

MILLINER OF BERLIN

Has Death Sentence Commuted to Life Imprisonment.

International News Service.

Berlin, May 14.—Augusta Zobel, a Berlin milliner, who murdered her rival in love, Freda Barthold, owes her life to the birth of an heir to the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin.

There were great rejoicings on the happy event, and the grand duke ordered the reduction of sentences on the criminals imprisoned.

Among them was Augusta Zobel, whose execution was to have taken place this month. The sentence was commuted to penal servitude for life. The woman's crime was committed at Rostock, where the young opera singer, Freda Barthold, was appearing.

Zobel's jealousy was aroused by her lover deserting her for the singer, and she went to visit Fraulein Barthold, with a revolver concealed in her muff. After the tragedy the murderess was arrested at the railroad station.

HYDE TRIAL COST

'TIS SAID IT WILL AGGREGATE TRULY ENORMOUS SUM OF $225,000.

COST TO MRS. HYDE BE $110,000

Special Prosecutors for the State to Get $50,000—Walsh Gets $40,000, With Extra Pay for His Assistants.

Kansas City, Mo., May 16.— The cost of the Dr. Hyde trial will be about $225,000, but the state and the county will bear only about $5,000 of this. The balance will be paid from the money Col. Swope left. The inquest cost $225, and the cost of the special grand jury, which returned eleven indictments against Hyde, two of these for first degree murder, was $604.

Three hundred men were summoned on the venire for the jury and were paid $2 and supplied with their meals while waiting to be examined. This cost is estimated at $850. The board for the jury during thirty days, is $360, and their fees at $2 a day is $720. Forty witnesses were examined by the state and were paid $1 a day and their mileage. Their fees were $1,200, and their mileage is estimated at $400.

The county paid $10 a day for an expert stenographer — $300 toward that expense.

The fees of the firm of stenographers were $140 a day. That part not paid by the state is divided equally between the Swope family and Mrs. Hyde. The stenographers worked in relays, taking the notes into phonographs so that they might be typed at once in order that the lawyers might have transcripts of the evidence almost as soon as the witness left the stand.

The stenographic bill therefore is more than $4,000. Transcripts of the evidence have been ordered from all parts of the United States and by both sides in the case against Mrs. Alan Proctor Vaughan and Dr. J. R. Hull, at Kirksville, for the death by poisoning of Prof. J. T. Vaughan, ordered copies.

One of the big bills the Swope family will have to pay is that of three experts, Drs. Victor C. Vaughan, Ludwig Hektoen and Walter S. Haines. The testimony in the trial showed they received $100 a day after they were retained until they completed their testimony and $200 a day while in Kansas City. All testified before the grand jury and in this case. They were here a week during the trial and that one week of their services cost $3,600. Their total bill is estimated at $28,000.

The lawyers retained by Mrs. Swope to aid in the prosecution---James A. Reed, a candidate for the United States senate; John H. Atwood, a politician and orator of national note, and John G. Paxton, an executor of the estate—will receive $50,000, it is said. There has been no testimony touching this, except that Paxton's retaining fee was $5,000.

Many suppose that Mrs. Logan O. Swope, Mrs. Hyde's mother, who was the most diligent member of the family in prosecuting Hyde, would bear this expense alone. This is not the case. The Misses Lucy Lee and Margaret Swope, each of whom is worth nearly half a million in her own right, are sharing in the costs.

Stella and Sarah Swope, who are under age, could not legally contribute, it was found, so they are paying all the expenses of maintaining the Swope mansion, and are paying the wages of the extra chauffeur and the additional automobiles required in conveying the family back and forth from Independence.

Mrs. Frances Swope Hyde is paying her husband's bills. One of them is the fee of Dr. E. E. Smith, of Fordham University in New York, who was Hyde's chief toxicological expert, and who coached Frank P. Walsh, the chief counsel, for his cross-examinations.

Dr. Smith was employed March 22, last, at a cost of $10,000, it is said. Other experts were brought to Kansas City from various Missouri and Kansas towns. Walsh, it is reported, will receive a fee of $40,000, and two other firms of high priced lawyers helped defend Hyde. The total cost to Mrs. Hyde is estimated at $110,000.

THE OWLTOWN NEWS.

"For the Uplift of the Masses."

VOL. I. OWLTOWN, MO., MAY 13, 1910. No. 3

(Roy Morris in the Houstonian.)

If a certain man in Owltown don't quit cussing his wife so loud that everybody in town can hear him he is going to get writ up in the News, regardless of consequences.

Bill Swift was appointed census enumerator of Owltown. Bill is not allowed to tell how many people Owltown has, but he intimated to us, confidentially that the number is not under 23 nor over 25.

Hank Hornsquabble and Miss Sal Victoria Strawberger were driving over the streets of Owltown last evening in Hanks new $29.65 buggy. The motive power was Hank's saddle mule, which seems to take kindly to harness.

There will be a debate at the Owltown school house next Thursday evening, to which all of Owltown is invited. The question to be debated is:" Who Should Get Up First in the Morning, a Man or His Wife?" John Henry Strawberger will take the affirmative and the editor of the News the negative side.

Bill Blowhard, the celebrated mouth harp player from Punkville, is visiting friends in Owltown this week. Bill is evidently smitten with the charms of Miss Lou Perkins, as he was seen standing under her window last night, while from his mouth harp issued the soul-inspiring strains of "Honey Lou" and other languishing love songs.

Little Johnny Bender, who is always getting into trouble, fell out of a tree into a barrel of fresh apple cider yesterday morning. Old man Sim Bender raised the roof for awhile, because he thought the cider was ruined, but Mrs. Bender got a clean cloth and strained the cider again and Old Sim finally admitted that it tasted about the same as before.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Muggins entertained a number of Owltown society leaders at a formal dinner Wednesday. Everything passed off swimmingly until Jim upset a plate of gravy in Mrs. Muggins' lap. Mrs. Muggins didn't say much while the guests were there, but after they left they saw Jim run out to the barn and lock himself in. Young Bill Swift sang one verse of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Bill Towseer and John Henry Strawberger engaged in an altercation in Henry Skinner's general merchandise emporium Tuesday evening. The argument, which was over the respective merits of a buck kneed mustang belonging to Bill and a spavined old mare belonging to John Henry, soon passed from words to blows. Bill only weighs 95 pounds with his boots on, while John Henry tips the wagon scales at 250 pounds, so the fight only lasted a fraction of a round. Bill went home with a blossom on his nose and a dark ring under his eye, while John Henry remained to receive and acknowledge the plaudits of the admiring throng.

To Dedicate a Church.

(From Sunday's Daily)

W. J. Riley is in receipt of a letter from his son, Joseph, who is attending St. Joseph's college at Rensselaer, Ind., in which the writer states the new church at Rensselaer is to be dedicated on May 17 amid ceremonies never before equalled in that section of the country.

Among the distinguished guests to attend the ceremonies is Gov. Marshall, of Indiana, who is to deliver an address. At night the college students, fifty in number, will present a four-act drama, in which Joseph is to portray a leading character.

On the night of May 15 the cast of characters is to be the honored guest list at a well-arranged banquet at the college.

MISS MONROE AT HOME

She Was Hostess to Forty Guests Friday Night.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Miss Lulu Monroe was the charming hostess to forty guests at her West Sixth street residence Friday night in compliment to nine members of her Sunday school class who are also members of the 1910 graduating class of the Sedalia High school.

The honor guests were: Misses Clara Evans, Mary Bast, Ruth Babcock, Mary Stein, Alma Bradford, Laverne Heckart, Nina Street, Pauline Hickerson and Lew Ellen Gillim.

Among the forty guests present were thirty members of the class, including Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Shultz, who have been instructors of the class for years.

A brief musical program was rendered, and dainty refreshments were served, after which each of the honor guests was presented with a Hoffman picture of Christ.

Miss Longan's Recital.

The music-loving public is deeply interested in the third annual song recital to be given by Miss Agnes Scott Longan, the accomplished young daughter of Judge and Mrs. Geore F. Longan, at the First Christian church on Thursday night, June 2.

Miss Longan is a Sedalia born and reared girl, who has few peers as a vocalist, and a musical treat is certainly in store for those who may be fortunate enough to hear her on the date stated.

INITIATED THE MAYOR

Another Large Class Adopted Into Knights and Ladies of Security.

(From Sunday's Daily)

The most interesting and enthusiastic of all the meetings that have ever been held by Fidelity council No. 53, Knights and Ladies of Security, took place Friday night, which was practically the first meeting in the new hall in the Odd Fellows' building.

While it was only a regular meeting the crowd of members that assembled completely packed the spacious hall and enjoyed the initiation of the class of candidates who were in waiting, among them being Mayor Mellor and Judge John D. Bohling, who later on in the evening gave two very entertaining talks, which were much appreciated by the members.

Seventeen applications were balloted upon and the following candidates were initiated: J. W. Mellor, Jennie Bales, Hattie Nichols, Nannie Gorrell, Guy Ireland, J. D. Bohling J. T. McCullough, Warren Wilson, J. W. Baldwin, Edith and Kate McKelvey, Clyde McKelvey, Linnie Harmon, Utopia Miles, Clara Garber, Nora Hugelman, J. E. Clagett and Harry Pope.

At the close of the meeting Dr. W. J. Ferguson on behalf of the council presented H. C. Rudisell a lapel watch fob with the emblem of the order on it as an appreciation of his presiding at the piano during the social sessions.

MISSOURI PACIFIC IRON MOUNTAIN

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with you warer and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

Sermon by
CHARLES T RUSSELL,
Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle.

Great Sermon at Albert Memorial Hall

Text: "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy and your young men shall have the vision which your ancients dreamed of; and on my servants and on my hand-maidens I will pour out in those days my Spirit, and they shall proclaim."—Acts 2:16-18. (Preferred Translation.)

London, Eng., May 15.—The Albert Memorial hall, recognized everywhere as the largest modern auditorium in the world, was crowded today to hear Pastor Russell, of Brooklyn Tabernacle, New York, on "Pentecostal Blessings." Many of the most prominent stalls and boxes are owned by the nobility, many of whom occupied them, while others, unable to attend, graciously granted permission for their occupancy by others; but hundreds were turned away. The meeting was held under the auspices of the "International Bible Students Association." The speaker said:—

It is appropriate that on this day, celebrated and recognized as the anniversary of Pentecost, we should consider the import, and have well in mind what we celebrate. I therefore take as my text, the words of St. Peter explanatory of the occasion: "This is that which was spoken by the Prophet Joel: And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall have the vision which your ancients dreamed of; and on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days my Spirit, and they shall proclaim." (I give you a preferred translation.)—Acts ii, 16-18.

St. Peter declares that the outpouring of the holy Spirit upon the waiting believers at Pentecost was mentioned by Joel the Prophet, but he does not say that all of the prophecy was fulfilled there and then. As a matter of fact we know that the holy Spirit was not then poured out on all flesh; it was poured out merely upon God's servants and hand-maidens. A careful inspection shows us that there are two parts to the prophecy—(1) All flesh, and (2) God's servants and hand-maidens. The order of the blessing is also stated. It will come upon all flesh after those days, but upon the servants and hand-maidens in those days. The days mentioned evidently refer to this Gospel age—from Pentecost to the second coming of Christ.

In this period, of now nearly nineteen centuries, God's holy Spirit has been granted to his faithful ones, and to these alone. Only the fully consecrated have been accepted of the Lord as living sacrifices, and only such have been begotten of the holy Spirit, that they may be "new creatures in Christ." During all this time, the world has been unrecognized so far as the holy Spirit is concerned. Indeed, the Apostle after Pentecost went still further and declared that "the whole world lieth in the Wicked One." The only action of the holy Spirit must be, as in the case of Felix, to "reprove the world of sin and righteousness, and of a coming judgment." Our text declares, however, that the time is coming when the world will receive a share of the great Divine blessing, which was fully assured by the death of Christ. But its time of favor will be "after those days"—after this Gospel Age shall have come to an end; after the New Dispensation, the Millennial Age, shall have come. Let us note first the blessings belonging to this Gospel Age, in which we are specially interested, and subsequently let us notice the blessings that God has promised shall come to all mankind.

The Church's Pentecost.

It is not sufficient that we say that a Pentecostal blessing came upon the followers of Jesus in the upper room at Jerusalem, totally different from anything that had been known in the world before! We want to know why it was so; and if a blessing, why it did not come sooner to God's people? We remember Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Daniel, the Prophets; we recognize the fact that they were grand characters, and, as St. Paul said, "They had this testimony that they pleased God." Yet there was no Pentecostal outpouring in their day, nor until the age of man in the world was more than four thousand years. Why was this? We answer that God has his own times and seasons for the various features of his work.

We recall the words of our Lord Jesus, respecting his forerunner, "Verily I say unto you, among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist; notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he" (Matthew xi, 11). Why could not John, and others of the prophets preceding him, enter in and enjoy this Gospel favor? We answer, in the language of St. Paul, "God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect" (Hebrews xi, 40). Our Creator has great gifts to dispense to our race through the Redeemer, and it is for him to determine the time and the seasons for the dispensing of these blessings, and to whom they shall go. According to the Divine arrangement, the Redeemer had first to die as man's Ransom-Price, before any of the race could come back into full relationship with the Creator. It is true that by faith Abraham and others of the past did enjoy certain of God's favors, and much of his fellowship, but none could be received into full sonship and joint-heirship with Christ, until first their sins had been cancelled. Then they could be accepted in Christ on the terms which the Father has appointed.

Those very disciples who received the blessing in the upper room on Pentecost had forsaken sin, had become Jesus' disciples, had made full consecration of all their earthly hopes and interests, had been accepted by the Lord Jesus, and he had put his Spirit upon them, enabling them to do many mighty works in his name. However, it was one thing to do mighty works through his spirit, or power, and another matter to possess that spirit inherently—to act directly as agents of divine favor instead of indirectly. It is in harmony with this thought that we read that after our Lord breathed upon them the holy Spirit, symbolically imparting his Spirit, and commissioning them as his representatives to preach the Gospel he told them, nevertheless to tarry at Jerusalem until they were endued with power—the holy Spirit—until the Father should recognize them directly as his ministers and ambassadors.

From the standpoint of Divine Justice, the Apostles and believers were still under the sentence of death as sinners at the time of our Lord's death, at the time of his resurrection, at the time of his ascension. Then he said to them, "It is expedient for you that I go away, for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you (John xvi, 7). After the forty days, invisibly present with his disciples, except on a few occasions for a few moments each, our Lord ascended, and after ten days the holy Spirit from the Father came upon the waiting household of faith. It evidenced to them the fact that their sins had been forgiven for Christ's sake, that they were justified freely from all things through his sacrifice, and that their consecration to sacrifice themselves had been accepted of the Father, and that henceforth they might count themselves as "joint-sacrificers with Christ," "members of his Body," members of "the Church of the First-born, whose names are written in heaven," members of the "Seed of Abraham" (Galatians iii, 29).

Keys of the Kingdom.

The Master in speaking to St. Peter assured him that to him were committed the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, which signified that the way into the Kingdom at that time had not yet been opened, and that Peter would be honored by being the Lord's servant to do the opening work. There were two of these "keys" and therefore there were two opening works to be accomplished.

The Church, under Christ her Lord, is God's kingdom, not yet set up or established "in power and great glory"—not yet finished or inaugurated. The work of this Gospel Age is to "call" or invite such as have a hearing ear to become joint heirs in this Kingdom, for which he taught us to pray, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven." So many as genuinely accept this heavenly calling, this "high calling" to glory, honor, and immortality, are probationary members of the Kingdom of Heaven. Such are Scripturally exhorted to continue faithful to their vows of consecration, and thus make their calling and election sure to a place in this glorious kingdom, which will be inaugurated at the second coming of Christ. But the Lord instructs all, saying, "Sit down first and count the cost" (Luke xiv, 28); "but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him" (Hebrews x, 38).

All who are thus spirit-begotten (by the holy Spirit (John i, 13) during this age are promised a spirit birth, to spirit-being in the resurrection. We read, "It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown an animal body; it is raised a spiritual body....For this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption" (I Corinthians xv 42-44,50). The entire period between the first advent and the second advent of our Redeemer is set apart in the Divine Program for this great work of selecting from amongst men the "little flock" such as shall be counted worthy of these honors on the spirit plane, and the privilege of participating with Messiah in his great work of the next age.

To the Jew First.

Only Jews received the Pentecostal blessing. The Gentiles were excluded for three and a half years thereafter, in harmony with a divine promise made to the Jewish nation. Then came the time for a similar privilege to be extended to the Gentiles, and the record informs us that Cornelius was the first Gentile to be received into spiritual relationship with God. He was a good man, and had been a good man for years; he prayed often, and gave much alms to the people, but until then, the middle wall of partition separated between Jew and Gentile. Even then he could not be received of God because of his works, or prayers, or alms, but must first be instructed respecting Christ and his redemptive work, and must believe and accept the same. "Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts iv, 12), either in this age or in any other.

Thus it was that, in harmony with the Redeemer's promise, St. Peter used the "key" which introduced the Gentiles to the Pentecostal blessings. As he used the first key on the Day of Pentecost in explaining to the multitudes of Jews the meaning of the Pentecostal blessings, and the privilege they had of entering into the Divine favor thereby, so, at this later date, the Lord instructed Cornelius to send for Peter, saying, "Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodging in the house of one Simon, a tanner by the seaside; who, when he cometh shall speak unto thee" (Acts x, 32; xi, 14, 15.) Thus were the two "keys" used by Peter, and thus were the doors of the Gospel, the high calling of joint heirship with Jesus, thrown open, both to the Jews and to the Gentiles, through faith in the precious blood. The doors thus thrown open are not yet closed; but, as we sometimes sing, "That gate was left ajar for me."

I rejoice with you today, fellow students of the Word of God, that this great gift of God is still obtainable, that the time has not yet fully come when the door of opportunity to this high calling must close. Close it will so soon as the full number of the "elect" has been completed. Thank God that another door will then open, the door of restitution to human perfection and to earthly life, grand beyond the power of description.

But the blessed opportunity of this Pentecostal favor is still granted. As St. Peter declares in his epistle, "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature" (I Peter i, 4.) The door to this Divine nature is the one that will soon shut, as our Redeemer illustrated in the parable of the "Wise and Foolish Virgins." When a sufficient number of "wise virgins" shall have entered to complete the bride class, forthwith the door of opportunity to that station, to that class, to that honor, to that Divine nature, will be closed, and the elect of God will be neither one more nor one less than the number originally foreordained.

"My Spirit Upon All Flesh."

St. Paul speaks of this Gospel age, saying, "Now is the accepted time; today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." Not all hear His voice in these days. The great mass of mankind have not even heard of the name of Jesus, and consequently could not harden their hearts against Him, nor against the tems now offered for return to fellowship with God. This is the acceptable time or period of salvation, in the sense that God is now willing to accept the offerings of believers if they present their bodies living sacrifices. St. Paul declares that this is a reasonable service, holy and acceptable to God (Romans xii, 1)

The testimony of the church and the high calling have been open during this Gospel age. The testimony to the world and the blessings under that testimony will be during the Millennial age. The death of Jesus is "the propitiation (satisfaction) for our sins (the church's), and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world"—in due time, during the Millennial age (I John ii, 2.) For, as the Apostle Paul declares, "there shall be a resurrection both of the just and the unjust (Acts xxiv, 15.) That will be the time for the precious merit of Jesus' sacrifice to be made known, to be understood, to be appreciated and to bring its blessed results of restitution to whosoever will receive the same.

Then God's Holy Spirit—holy power will, through Christ, be outpoured upon all flesh, upon all mankind. Messiah will inaugurate the new dispensation by sealing with Israel the new covenant in His blood; as says the Lord, through the Apostle Paul, "This is my covenant with them when I shall take away their sins. As concerning the Gospel they are enemies for your sakes, but as touching the election they are beloved for the fathers' sakes" (Romans xi. 27-28.)

This outpouring of the Holy Spirit is not merely for Israel, nor God's blessing merely upon Abraham's natural seed outside of the church class. It will include all of every nation desirous of coming into accord with God, after they shall have come to a clear knowledge of the truth. All nations shall be privileged to enter into and enjoy Israel's great covenant by becoming children of Abraham through faith. And all rejectors of God's grace having been destroyed in the second death, the world of mankind will constitute the promised seed of Abraham, whose number shall be as the sands of the seashore, even as the spirit-begotten ones of this Gospel age are likened to the stars of heaven.

The ancients, the prophets, St. Peter declares, have all spoken of the glorious "times of restitution." and it will be during these times when the Lord shall pour out His Spirit upon all flesh, that the people may realize what the ancients had seen in visions and in dreams—"the wilderness blossoming as a rose, the solitary places being glad," "fountains in the desert," "the knowledge of the Lord filling the whole earth as the waters cover the great deep, and none needing to say to his neighbor, Know thou the Lord, for all shall know him from the least to the greatest."

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain special Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. DR. HYDE IS GUILTY

JURY IN FAMOUS MURDER CASE RENDERED VERDICT THIS MORNING.

LIFE IMPRISONMENT IS SENTENCE

The Physician Received the News Coolly and Did Not Break Down —"Don't Worry, Dearie," His Words to Wife.

Kansas City, Mo., May 16.—The jury in the case of Dr. B. C. Hyde, charged with the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree at 10:23 o'clock this morning, after being out since last Friday night. Hyde's punishment was fixed at life imprisonment.

"Oh, Clark," cried Mrs. Hyde, when the verdict was read by Judge Latshaw. She threw her arms about his neck and wept silently. Then she patted her husband on the cheek. Hyde sat motionless. He looked firmly at Judge Latshaw while the verdict was being received, and as the words, "imprisonment in the state penitentiary during his natural life," were pronounced his eyes fell upon the floor.

"Don't worry, dearie," he said to his wife, as she clasped him in her arms.

Mrs. E. N. Hopkins and Miss Laura Hyde, sisters of the physician, looked distressed, but did not break down. They tried to comfort Mrs. Hyde and appear brave before her. The physician will be sentenced in open court by Judge Latshaw either Thursday or Friday.

The law allows the defense four days in which to file a motion for a new trial.

"Treat the prisoner the same as any other," Judge Latshaw ordered County Marshal Joel B. Mayes. "Give him few privileges and no luxuries."

The usual custom of permitting prisoners to send out for meals will apply in Dr. Hyde's case, but he must sleep in his cell.

"I will file a motion for a new trial and then take an appeal in the case," said Frank Walsh, chief counsel for Hyde.

The verdict came unexpectedly. Every attorney in the case had given up hope of the jury, which had been out since Friday night, coming to an agreement. It was reported this morning that one juryman had vowed he would "vote for acquittal until I die of old age."

An hour after the verdict was rendered Mrs. Hyde was able to go home. Before leaving she said:

"I am now over the first shock and am feeling strong. I shall take immediate steps for a new trial. Failing in this, I shall arrange for an appeal. The case will be reversed in the supreme court, I am confident, because Clark is innocent, and therefore, it cannot be otherwise."

Frank Walsh, leading counsel for Dr. Hyde, said: "The case will be appealed and we have every confidence in the final outcome. I have nothing else to say."

Attorney John H. Lucas, associate counsel with Walsh, said: "The supreme court will remand this case for a new trial. There has been sufficient error in it to convince me of this."

When the news of the conviction was forwarded by telephone to Mrs. L. O. Swope, who was at her home in Independence, she shrieked and dropped the receiver. She refused to make a statement.

It is the belief of the court attaches that the supreme court will be unable to reach Hyde's case for at least a year, on account of the crowded condition of the docket. In the meantime the prisoner may be kept in the county jail or sent to the state's prison at Jefferson City by Judge Latshaw. The law of Missouri prohibits the court from admitting a convicted murderer to bail.

After their discharge, the jurors went immediately to their hotel to obtain their personal belongings.

They did not separate at once, but remained to talk and give promises of continuing the friendships formed in the jury room.

"We positively decided not to discuss our deliberations," said Frank Claypool, the foreman.

"Was there a row in the jury room last night?" he was asked. "Absolutely not," he said. "Of course, we argued heatedly, but there was no friction."

Juror Samuel R. Johnson, of Sibley, Mo., who was said to have been in the fight, denied emphatically there had been one.

"You felt justified, did you?" he was asked. "In holding out so long for acquittal?" "Yes," he said. In response to other qustions Johnson refused to commit himself further.

Juror Lillard, who it has been stated, was one of these, who had held out for conviction from the start, declined to say what any of the ballots had been.

"Of course," he said, "we had some difficulty in reaching a verdict, as the length of time we were out indicates, but there was no friction of any kind."

Mrs. Logan O. Swope was feeling improved in spirits this afternoon and she consented to talk. "If I had not been satisfied I was doing the right thing," she said, "I never would have started this prosecution of my son-in-law. I am convinced that justice has been given the defendant. Of course, it does not behoove me to say whether I wanted to see him hanged. As for a reconciliation with my daughter, I stand now, as I have always stood. The doors of my house, and my arms and heart are open to her, whenever she wants to come home. My mother love for her has never cooled. I have thought she was mistaken, but never that she was other than the sweet, innocent girl that she is."

PAROLED CONVICT

CAN BE SUCCESSFUL IF HE IS HONEST AND SINCERE IN HIS ENDEAVORS.

DEMONSTRATED BY E. VON FLEET

Went to Kansas City, Where He Made It Known to People That He Had Served Sentence at Jefferson City for Murder.

The fact that a man who has served a sentence in the state penitentiary for committing murder and who has received a parole can be successful upon his release has just been demonstrated by Elmer E. Von Fleet, or rather Alex Seymour, says the Jefferson City Capital-News.

Von Fleet was here during the month of February and conceived the idea, in conjunction with Warden Andrae and Pardon Attorney W. L. Chambers of posing as a man who had served a term in prison for murder and had received a parole at the hands of Governor Hadley.

Alexander Seymour was the name assumed when the man left here for Kansas City on the 22d day of February, assuming the role of a pardoned convict.

The first thing that Seymour did when he arrived in Kansas City was to apply to a minister of the Gospel for aid. He made known his true condition to the preacher. Finally Seymour secured work at a dairy at $15 per month. During the time he worked there he saved more than $60.

Seymour, thinking that he had had enough of the dairy business, told his employer that he was going to secure a better position. An advertisement was inserted in the Kansas City Star by Seymour, asking for employment. The ad made it plainly known that he was a paroled convict and had ability to buy or sell for any concern and also had an adaptability to handle a bunch of men.

He stated that if any one would put confidence in him he would give his word of honor to make good. Do you think that he received any answers? Fourteen reliable firms answered the advertisement, offering employment to the supposed convict.

At this juncture of the affair the man who had befriended Seymour and had employed him happened to lose some of his help. Seymour, noticing his former employer's plight, offered to work for him again. This afforded him an opportunity to avoid the firms who wanted to employ him.

After quitting the dairyman's job he attempted to deal in cattle. Of course, this took capital. A letter from Pardon Attorney Chambers offered to lend a sum toward the proposed movement. Seymour made known the fact to the other stockmen in Kansas City that he was a paroled convict. The cattlemen offered to lend the man who was so frank about his condition a sum of $640, which would start him in business.

The matter was growing so warm and complexed at this stage of the game that the newspaper men of Kansas City began to inquire into the case of Seymour, causing him to "come across" and tell the true state of affairs to those who had helped him in his experiences. An apology was gracefully accepted by those who had been so cunningly deceived.

Mr. Seymour is visiting in the city at the present time. He will leave for St. Louis today. Mr. Von Fleet some months ago won a $10,000 wager in St. Louis by saving $400 during four years of work at a dairy at laborer's wages.

Mr. Von Fleet in an interview with a reporter of the Capital-News said he had gained a world of knowledge from the experiences he had while going through life as a paroled convict, one that had committed murder and who had served time behind those grim walls in the eastern part of the city. "I tried to act the part exactly as a real one would all the way through," said Von Fleet, in conclusion.

WHO SOLD POISON

A Traveling Salesman Victim of Inexperienced Druggist.

(From Monday's Daily)

C. D. Campbell, a clothing salesman from Auburn, N. Y., was dangerously poisoned at his apartments at the Pullman hotel, Main street and Lamine avenue, at the midnight hour last night, due to an inexperienced drug clerk selling him bichloride of mercury for mercury.

Mr. Campbell, who came to Sedalia several days ago, has been stopping at the Pullman hotel. Sunday he felt ill and went to a drug store to get some mercury, the latter acting like calomel.

By mistake the drug clerk sold him bi-chloride of mercury, but the discovery was not made until after he had taken the poison. At the midnight hour Mr. Campbell returned to his room. He had no sooner swallowed two tablets of the poison than his tongue and mouth began burning frightfully.

He called a bell boy and instructed the latter to call a physician. Dr. K. R. Barnum was summoned and administered antidotes, which reacted on the poison.

Mr. Campbell, when asked where he made the purhase, would not say, but he will take steps to prosecute the individual, whose inexperience almost resulted in his death.

DEATH OF J. W. VAN CLEAVE

Advocated "Open Shops" and Opposed Labor Unions.

St. Louis, Mo., May 16.—James W Van Cleave, widely known as a foremost organizer of the Citizens' Industrial association movement, stanch advocate of the open shop and antagonist of labor unions, died yesterday morning at 6 o'clock at his residence, 4209 Morgan street, from heart disease and attending complications. He was 60 years old.

It was Mr. Van Cleave, through his prosecution of the boycott injunction suit of his manufacturing concern, the Buck's Stove and Range company, of St. Louis, who caused Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, the labor leaders, to be sentenced to jail, a sentence which still hangs over them.

A CHICAGO STRIKE

THAT OF THE TAXICAB CHAUFFEURS HAS BROUGHT JOY TO POLICEMEN.

JOY RIDES FOR FORTY-TWO OF'EM

These Special Officers Are the Envy of the Men Who Guard Crossings and Are on Their Feet Entire Day.

Chicago, May 17.—A strike of taxicab chauffeurs has brought "joy rides" to forty-two fortunate policemen who have been assigned to protest the non-union taxis, for their days and evenings are spent in auto riding about the city in the crisp spring air.

The duty of filling the front seat of a handsome taxi as a concrete evidence of the majesty of the law has made these guards the envy of the crossing men who keep traffic moving. The job at crossings, dodging cars and helping men, women and children dodge them is no sinecure—in fact, is hazardous, as the hospital roll attests.

Captain Charles C. Healy, who recently was sent to London to investigate street traffic handling, has reported the number of constables on duty as small, but the traffic is controlled with the frictionless precision of clockwork.

"Why is this possible?" he says. "Simply because the constables, who, of course, know their business, are dealing with a public which profoundly respects the law and orders of the officers. Herein, I believe, is the greatest lesson Chicago can learn from London in harmony and unobstructed movement in the streets. The public of Chicago must be taught to realize that strict obedience to the law and the commands of the police guarantees the rights and promotes the interests of everyone using the streets.

"In London no cabman, or chauffeur, or teamster, or anybody else, dreams of disputing the authority of the crossing constable, and one scarcely hears a word spoken. The constable's lifted finger does the business."
